

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

OF THE MUSIC OF THE CHURCH

It shall be the duty of every Minister to appoint for use in his Congregation hymns or anthems from those authorized by the Rubric, and, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung in his Church. It shall be his especial duty to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all irreverence in the performance.

Preface

THE General Convention of the year 1913 entrusted to a Commission the revision of the Hymnal. The General Convention of 1916, accepting a book then submitted, referred it back to the Commission with instructions to perfect it and give it to the Church. In its effort to obey this command, the Commission now presents this book.

Some hymns which were in the former collection have been omitted because it was discovered by careful inquiry that they were seldom if ever used. One of the principles of the revision was to make the new book as compact as excellence and variety would permit. Some old hymns which are perhaps below the general standard are retained because they have the affection of a considerable number of people.

The hymns added find a place either because they are great religious verse, or because they express the experience and aspiration of our time. These are hymns intended to voice our yearning for larger social service, for deeper patriotism, for a more eager obligation to the winning and maintaining of a free world, for a higher enthusiasm towards the unity and extension of Christianity. This Hymnal of 1918 cannot escape the marks of the Great War,—its tragedy, its sympathy, its loving sacrifice, its gratitude because God has given us the victory for the right and the true.

The hymns have been arranged as nearly as possible in the Prayer Book order, with the hope that people will recognize that they have a companion for the Book of Common Prayer in a Book of Common Praise.

The Commission has tried to retain and to add such hymns as express reality in the religious life. At the same time there has been generous thought for a wide diversity of temperament and training. From stern simplicity to exuberant emotion, the ways in which men would praise God are manifold. Accordingly there are hymns of objective adoration, august and distant, side by side with hymns which unburden the singer's heart and tell what God has done for him alone.

The members of the Commission charged with the task of selecting the music of the hymns have tried first of all to select music which congregations as well as choristers can sing. The number of sentimental and weak melodies has been reduced. It is hoped that the many fine new tunes will so far win their way that such inferior music as is retained will lose its attraction. By such additions as certain

Plainsong settings and tunes for adult male voices, the effort is made to appeal to various temperaments and abilities. No one parish will care to use all the tunes, but out of the book every parish will find a sufficient number for all its needs, which it can sing with enthusiasm. As with the words; so with the music, the Commission has endeavoured to provide a book which will make our Communion a singing Church.

The prayer which goes up with the finishing of the book is that, in spite of its limitations and imperfections, it may bring the Church into greater joy, as the people sing these hymns of the ages to the grateful honour of the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost.

Note

"Amen" is printed only with those hymns which are prayer, praise, or otherwise addressed to God. Nevertheless, the necessary music for "Amen" has been supplied throughout, for the use of those who desire it.

The dates throughout this book are arranged as follows, both for the Hymns and the Tunes. A single date, without a hyphen, is the earliest obtainable for the given Hymn or Tune: whether of composition, or of first publication. When such a date is wanting, the dates of the author's or composer's birth and death are given, separated by a hyphen. A date followed by a hyphen is that of birth; preceded by a hyphen, or by the letter d., that of death. The letter c. (circa), indicates an approximate date.

When no composer is known, the place and date of publication are given when possible.

The New Hymnal

THE HYMNAL.

I.—DAILY PRAYER.

Morning.

MELCOMER.

L.M.

SAMUEL WEBBE, 1782.

2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

6 Seek we no more; content with these,
Let present rapture, comfort, ease,
As heaven shall bid them, come and
The secret this of rest below. [go:—

7 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.
Amen.

JOHN KEBLE, 1822.

2 Morning.

MORNING HYMN.

L. M. FRANCOIS H. BARTHELEMON, 1783.

- 2 Redeem thy misspent moments past; 3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
And live this day as if thy last: Thy conscience as the noonday clear;
Improve thy talent with due care; Think how all-seeing God thy ways
For the great Day thyself prepare. And all thy secret thoughts surveys.
- 4 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praise to the eternal King.

PART II.

- 5 All praise to Thee, Who safe hast kept
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.
- 6 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.
- 7 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.
- 8 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

THOMAS KEN, 1695, rev. 1709.

HAYDN (First Tune).

8.4.7.8.4.7.

Arr. from FRANZ JOSEPH HAYDN, 1791.

2 Gladly hail the sun returning,
Ready burning
Be the incense of thy powers;
For the night is safely ended,
God hath tended
With His care thy helpless hours.

3 Pray that He may prosper ever
Each endeavour,
When thine aim is good and true;
And that He may ever thwart thee,
And convert thee,
When thou evil wouldst pursue.

4 Think that He thy ways beholdeth;
He unfoldeth
Every fault that lurks within;
He the hidden shame glossed over
Can discover,
And discern each deed of sin.

5 Mayest thou on life's last morrow,
Free from sorrow,
Pass away in slumber sweet;
And, released from death's dark sadness,
Rise in gladness
That far brighter Sun to greet.

6 Only God's free gifts abuse not,
Light refuse not,
But His Spirit's voice obey;
Thou with Him shalt dwell, beholding
Light enfolding
All things in unclouded day. Amen.

RATISBON.

Six 7's.

WERNER'S Choralbuch, 1815.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
 Unaccompanied by Thee;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till Thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Glad my eyes and warm my heart.

3 Visit then this soul of mine!
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief!
 Fill me, Radiance Divine;
 Scatter all my unbelief;
 More and more Thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day. Amen.

CHARLES WESLEY, 1740.

ST. PETER.

C. M. ALEXANDER R. REINAGLE, 1836.

2 No sinful word, nor deed of wrong,
Nor thoughts that idly rove,
But simple truth be on our tongue,
And in our hearts be love.

3 And while the hours in order flow,
O Christ, securely fence
Our gates, beleaguered by the foe,
The gate of every sense.

4 And grant that to Thine honour, Lord,
Our daily toil may tend;
That we begin it at Thy word,
And in Thy favour end. Amen.

HENRY W. BAKER, 1875.

2 Now with the newborn day I give Myself anew to Thee,
That as Thou wilt I may live,
And what Thou wilt be.

3 Whate'er I do, things great or small,
Whate'er I speak or frame,
Thy glory may I seek in all,
Do all in Jesus' Name.

4 My Father, for His sake, I pray
Thy child accept and bless;
And lead me by Thy grace to-day
In paths of righteousness. Amen.

- 2 The task Thy wisdom hath assigned,
O let me cheerfully fulfill;
In all my works Thy presence find,
And prove Thy good and perfect will.
- 3 Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes my inmost substance see;
And labour on at Thy command,
And offer all my works to Thee.
- 4 Give me to bear Thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to Thy glorious Day.
- 5 Fain would I still for Thee employ
Whate'er Thy bounteous grace hath given,
Would run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with Thee to heaven. Amen.

2 Each field is then a hallowed spot,
An altar is in each man's cot,
A church in every grove that spreads

3 Look up to heaven, the industrious sun
Already half his race hath run:
He cannot halt or go astray,
But our immortal spirits may.

4 Lord, since his rising in the east,
If we have faltered or transgressed,
Guide, from Thy love's abundant source,
What yet remains of this day's course;

1 Be-hold us, Lord, a lit - tle space From dai - ly tasks set free,

And met with-in Thy ho - ly place To rest awhile with Thee. A-men.

2 Around us rolls the ceaseless tide
Of business, toil, and care;
And scarcely can we turn aside
For one brief hour of prayer.

3 Yet these are not the only walls
Wherein Thou mayst be sought;
On homeliest work Thy blessing falls,
In truth and patience wrought.

4 Thine is the loom, the forge, the mart,
The wealth of land and sea,
The worlds of science and of art,
Revealed and ruled by Thee.

5 Then let us prove our heavenly birth,
In all we do and know;
And claim the kingdom of the earth
For Thee and not Thy foe.

6 Work shall be prayer, if all be wrought
As Thou wouldst have it done,
And prayer, by Thee inspired and taught,
Itself with work be one. Amen.

E - ter - nal Light of Light, be with us now. Where Thou art pre - sent darkness cannot be; Mid-night is glorious noon, O Lord, with Thee. A-men.

- 2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end;
Onward to darkness and to death we tend.
O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our guide,
Be Thou our light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.
- 3 Thou, Who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
And earthly hopes and human succours fail.
When all is dark may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice: "Fear not, for it is I."
- 4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
In that last sunset when the stars shall fall,
May we arise awakened by Thy call,
With Thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
In that blest day which has no eventide. Amen.

- 2 As Christ upon the cross
His head inclined,
And to His Father's hands
His parting soul resigned;

Would wholly give
Into His sacred charge,
In Whom all spirits live;

Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast;
- 5 Save that His will be done,
Whate'er betide;
Dead to herself, and dead
In Him to all beside.
- 6 Thus would I live; yet now
Not I, but He,
In all His power and love,
Henceforth alive in me.
- 7 One sacred Trinity,
One Lord divine,
May I be ever His,
And He for ever mine. Amen.

EVENTIDE.

Four 10's.

WILLIAM H. MONK, 1861.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
 Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
 Change and decay in all around I see;
 O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
 What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
 Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
 Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

Evening.

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
 Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
 Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
 I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes:
 Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
 Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
 In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

- 2 When the soft dews of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.

With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,

We lose ourselves in heaven above. Amen.

2 The sorrows of Thy servants, Lord,
O do not Thou despise,
But let the incense of our prayers
Before Thy mercy rise.
The brightness of the coming night
Upon the darkness rolls;
With hopes of future glory chase
The shadows on our souls.

3 Slowly the rays of daylight fade:
So fade within our heart
The hopes in earthly love and joy,
That one by one depart.
Slowly the bright stars, one by one,
Within the heavens shine:

Give us, O Lord, fresh hopes in heaven,
And trust in things divine.

4 Let peace, O Lord, Thy peace, O
God,
Upon our souls descend;
From midnight fears and perils,
Thou
Our trembling hearts defend.
Give us a respite from our toil;
Calm and subdue our woes;
Through the long' day we labour,
Lord,
O give us now repose. Amen.

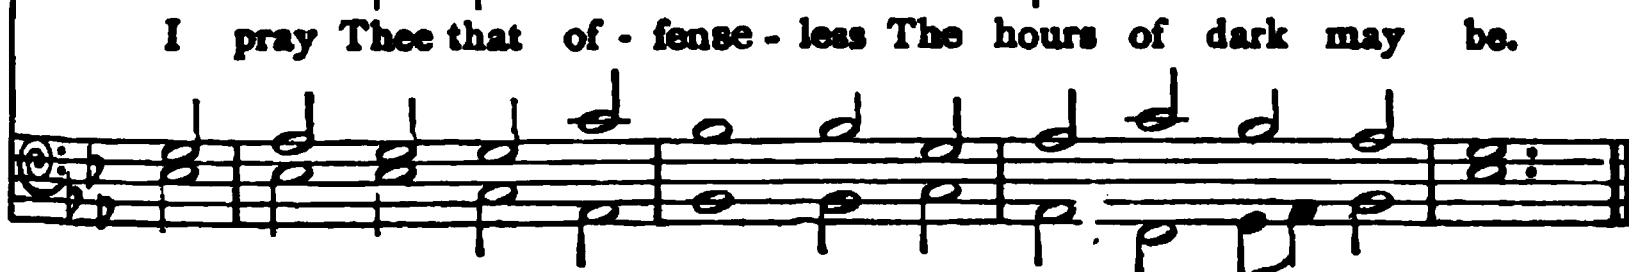

ADELAIDE A. PROCTER, 1862.

O Je-sus, keep me in Thy sight, And guard me thro' the com-ing night. A-men.

2 The joys of day are over:
I lift my heart to Thee,
And call on Thee that sinless
The hours of gloom may be.
O Jesus, make their darkness light,
And guard me through the coming night.

4 Lord, that in death I sleep not,
And lest my foe should say,
"I have prevailed against him,"
Lighten mine eyes, I pray:
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.

3 The toils of day are over:
I raise the hymn to Thee,
And ask that free from peril
The hours of fear may be.
O Jesus, keep me in Thy sight,
And guard me through the coming night.

5 Be Thou my soul's preserver,
O God, for Thou dost know
How many are the perils
Through which I have to go.

 And in Paradise awake us,
 There to rest in peace with Thee.

3 Father, to Thy holy keeping
 Humbly we ourselves resign;

 Make our slumbers pure as Thine;
 Blessed Spirit, brooding o'er us,
 Chase the darkness of our night,

Sleep that shall me more vigorous make
To serve my God when I awake.

My soul with heavenly thoughts supply;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

1 From every storm-y wind that blows, From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure re - treat; 'Tis found beneath the mer-cy - seat.

- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,
A place than all beside more sweet;
It is the blood-stained mercy-seat.

Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

O help us, when our spirits cry
 With contrite anguish sore;
 And when our hearts are cold and dry,
 O help us, Lord, the more!

O help us through the prayer of faith
 More firmly to believe!
 For still the more the servant hath,
 The more shall he receive.

O help us, Saviour, from on high:
 We have no help but Thee.
 O help us so to live and die
 As Thine in heaven to be! Amen.

If Thou art my Shield and my Sun,
 The night is no darkness to me;

A sovereign Protector I have,
 Unseen, yet for ever at hand;
 Unchangeably faithful to save,
 Almighty to rule and command.

 His grace, as the dew, shall descend;

 The soul He delights to defend.

2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed,
 To Thee my thoughts would soar:
 Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed,
 That mercy I adore.

3 In each event of life, how clear
 Thy ruling hand I see;
 Each blessing to my soul more dear,
 Because conferred by Thee.

4 In every joy that crowns my days,
 In every pain I bear,
 My heart shall find delight in praise,
 Or seek relief in prayer.

5 When gladness wings my favoured hour,
 Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
 Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
 My soul shall meet Thy will.

6 My lifted eye, without a tear,
 The gathering storms shall see;
 My steadfast heart shall know no fear;
 That heart will rest on Thee. Amen.

The second and fourth lines may be sung in unison.

2 Help me to labour earnestly
And duly pray;
Let me be kind in word and deed,
Father, to-day.

3 Let me be slow to do my will,
Prompt to obey;
Help me to sacrifice myself
Gladly, to-day.

4 Let me no wrong or idle word
Unthinking say;
Set Thou a seal upon my lips
Through all to-day.

5 Let me in season, Lord, be grave,
In season gay:
Let me be faithful to Thy grace,
Dear Lord, to-day.

6 And if to-day this life of mine
Should ebb away,
Give me Thy Sacrament divine,
Father, to-day.

7 So for to-morrow and its needs
I do not pray:
Still keep me, guide me, love me, Lord,
Through each to-day. Amen.

2 Whene'er the sweet church bell
 Peals over hill and dell,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 O hark to what it sings,
 As joyously it rings,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 My tongue shall never tire
 Of chanting with the choir,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 This song of sacred joy,
 It never seems to cloy,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

4 When sleep her balm denies,
 My silent spirit sighs,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 When evil thoughts molest,
 With this I shield my breast,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

5 Does sadness fill my mind?
 A solace here I find,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 Or fades my earthly bliss?
 My comfort still is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

6 The night becomes as day,
 When from the heart we say,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 The powers of darkness fear,
 When this sweet chant they hear,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

7 In heaven's eternal bliss
 The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 Let earth, and sea, and sky
 From depth to height reply,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

8 Be this, while life is mine,
 My canticle divine,
 May Jesus Christ be praised;
 Be this the eternal song
 Through ages all along,
 May Jesus Christ be praised. Amen.

When crimson gleams the east adorn,

To Thee my soul triumphant springs;
Thee, throned in glory's endless blaze,
Thee, Lord of lords and King of kings.

To death, whose power I soon must feel,

2 O Way, through Whom our souls draw near
To yon eternal home of peace,
Where perfect love shall cast out fear,
And earth's vain toil and wandering cease;
In strength or weakness may we see
Our heavenward path, O Lord, through Thee.

3 O Truth, before Whose shrine we bow,
Thou priceless pearl for all who seek,
To Thee our earliest strength we vow;
Thy love will bless the pure and meek;
When dreams or mists beguile our sight,
Turn Thou our darkness into light.

4 O Life, the well that ever flows
To slake the thirst of those that faint,
Thy power to bless, what seraph knows?
Thy joy supreme, what words can paint?
In earth's last hour of fleeting breath
Be Thou our conqueror over death.

5 O Light, O Way, O Truth, O Life,
O Jesus, born mankind to save,
Give Thou Thy peace in deadliest strife;

JOHN S. B. HODGES, 1869.

2 On thee, at the creation,
The light first had its birth;
On thee for our salvation
Christ rose from depths of earth;
On thee our Lord victorious
The Spirit sent from heaven,
And thus on thee most glorious
A triple light was given.

3 Thou art a port protected
From storms that round us rise;
A garden intersected
With streams of Paradise;
Thou art a cooling fountain
In life's dry, dreary sand;
From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
We view our promised land.

4 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where Gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul refreshing streams.

5 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the Rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.
To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father, and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To Thee, blest Three in One.

Advent.

2 Sion hears the watchmen singing,
Her heart with deep delight is springing,
She wakes, she rises from her gloom:
Forth her Bridegroom comes, all glorious,
In grace arrayed, by truth victorious;
Her Star is risen, her Light is come!
All hail, Incarnate Lord,
Our crown, and our reward!
Alleluia!
We haste along, in pomp of song,
And gladsome join the marriage throng.

3 Lamb of God, the heavens adore Thee,
And men and angels sing before Thee,
With harp and cymbal's clearest tone.
By the pearly gates in wonder
We stand, and swell the voice of thunder,
That echoes round Thy dazzling throne.
No vision ever brought,
No ear hath ever caught,
Such bliss and joy:
We raise the song, we swell the throng,
To praise Thee ages all along. Amen.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,
Caught up to meet Him in the skies,

With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet Him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold His wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing;

The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet Him.

4 Great God, to Thee my spirit clings
Thy boundless love declaring;
One wondrous sight my comfort brings,

The Judge my nature wearing.
Beneath His cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet Him.

VENI EMMANUEL.
To be sung in unison.

Six 8's. Adapted by THOMAS HELMORE,
1854; from "A French Missal." Mode I.

1 O come, O come, Em-man-u-el, And ransom cap-tive Is-ra-el;
That mourns in low-ly ex-ile here, Un-til the Son of God ap-pear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Em-man-u-el Shall come to thee, O Is-ra-el! Amen.

2 O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny;
From depths of hell Thy people save,
And give them victory o'er the grave.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

4 O come, Thou Key of David, come,
And open wide our heavenly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high,
And close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

3 O come, Thou Dayspring, come and cheer
Our spirits by Thine advent here;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel!

5 O come, O come, Thou Lord of might!
Who to Thy tribes on Sinai's height,
In ancient times didst give the law,
In cloud, and majesty, and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Amen.

2 Thou art coming, Thou art coming;
 We shall meet Thee on Thy way;
 We shall see Thee, we shall know Thee,
 We shall bless Thee, we shall show Thee
 All our hearts could never say;
 What an anthem that will be,
 Music rapturously sweet,
 Pouring out our love to Thee
 At Thine own all-glorious feet.

Advent.

3 Thou art coming; at Thy table
We are witnesses for this;
While remembering hearts Thou meetest
In communion clearest, sweetest,
Earnest of our coming bliss;
Showing not Thy death alone,
And Thy love exceeding great,
But Thy coming, and Thy throne,
All for which we long and wait.

4 Thou art coming, we are waiting
With a hope that cannot fail;
Asking not the day or hour,
Resting on Thy word of power,
Anchored safe within the veil.
Time appointed may be long,
But the vision must be sure;
Certainty shall make us strong,
Joyful patience can endure.

5 O the joy to see Thee reigning,
Thee, our own belovèd Lord!
Every tongue Thy Name confessing,
Worship, honour, glory, blessing
Brought to Thee with one accord;
Thee, our Master and our Friend,
Vindicated and enthroned,
Unto earth's remotest end
Glorified, adored, and owned! Amen.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
 Let right to wrong succeed;
 Let penitential sorrow
 To heavenly gladness lead:
 To the home of fadeless splendour,
 Of flowers that bear no thorn,
 Where they shall dwell as children,
 Who here as exiles mourn;

3 'Mid power that knows no limit,
 And wisdom free from bound,
 Where rests a peace untroubled,
 Peace holy and profound,
 O happy, holy portion,
 Refection for the blest,
 True vision of true beauty,
 Sweet cure for all distress!

4 Thou hast no shore, fair ocean!
 Thou hast no time, bright day!
 Dear fountain of refreshment
 To pilgrims far away!
 Strive, man, to win that glory;
 Toil, man, to gain that light;
 Send hope before to grasp it,
 Till hope be lost in sight.

5 O sweet and blessed country,
 The home of God's elect!
 O sweet and blessed country
 That eager hearts expect!
 Jesus, in mercy bring us
 To that dear land of rest,
 Who art with God the Father,
 And Spirit, ever blest. Amen.

HENRY J. GAUNTLETT, 1852.

2 There grief is turned to pleasure ;
Such pleasure as below
No human voice can utter,
No human heart can know ;
And after fleshly weakness,
And after this world's night,
And after storm and whirlwind,
Are calm, and joy, and light.

4 And now we watch and struggle,
And now we live in hope,
And Sion in her anguish
With Babylon must cope ;
But there is David's fountain,
And life in fullest glow ;
And there the light is golden,
And milk and honey flow.

3 And now we fight the battle,
But then shall wear the crown
Of full and everlasting
And passionless renown ;
And He Whom now we trust in Shall then be seen and known,
And they that know and see Him
Shall have Him for their own.

5 The morning shall awaken,
The shadows flee away,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as doth the day ;
For God our King and Portion,
In fullness of His grace,
We then shall see for ever,
And worship face to face.

6 O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect !
O sweet and blessed country
That eager hearts expect !
Jesus, in mercy bring us
To that dear land of rest,
Who art with God the Father,
And Spirit ever blest. Amen.

Who heard the angelic herald's voice: "Behold,
I bring good tidings of a Saviour's birth
To you and all the nations upon earth:
This day hath God fulfilled His promised word,
This day is born a Saviour, Christ the Lord."
- 3 He spake, and straightway the celestial choir
In hymns of joy, unknown before, conspire;
The praises of redeeming love they sang,
And heaven's whole orb with alleluias rang;
God's highest glory was their anthem still,
Peace upon earth, and unto men good-will.
- 4 To Bethlehem straight the happy shepherds ran,
To see the wonder God had wrought for man;
And found, with Joseph and the blessed maid,
Her Son, the Saviour, in a manger laid;
Amazed, the wondrous story they proclaim,
The earliest heralds of the Saviour's name.
- 5 Let us, like these good shepherds, then employ
Our grateful voices to proclaim the joy;
Trace we the Babe, Who hath retrieved our loss,
From His poor manger to His bitter cross;
Treading His steps, assisted by His grace,
Till man's first heavenly state again takes place.
- 6 Then may we hope, the angelic thrones among,
To sing, redeemed, a glad triumphal song;
He, that was born upon this joyful day,
Around us all His glory shall display;
Saved by His love, incessant we shall sing

So God imparts to human hearts

With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow!

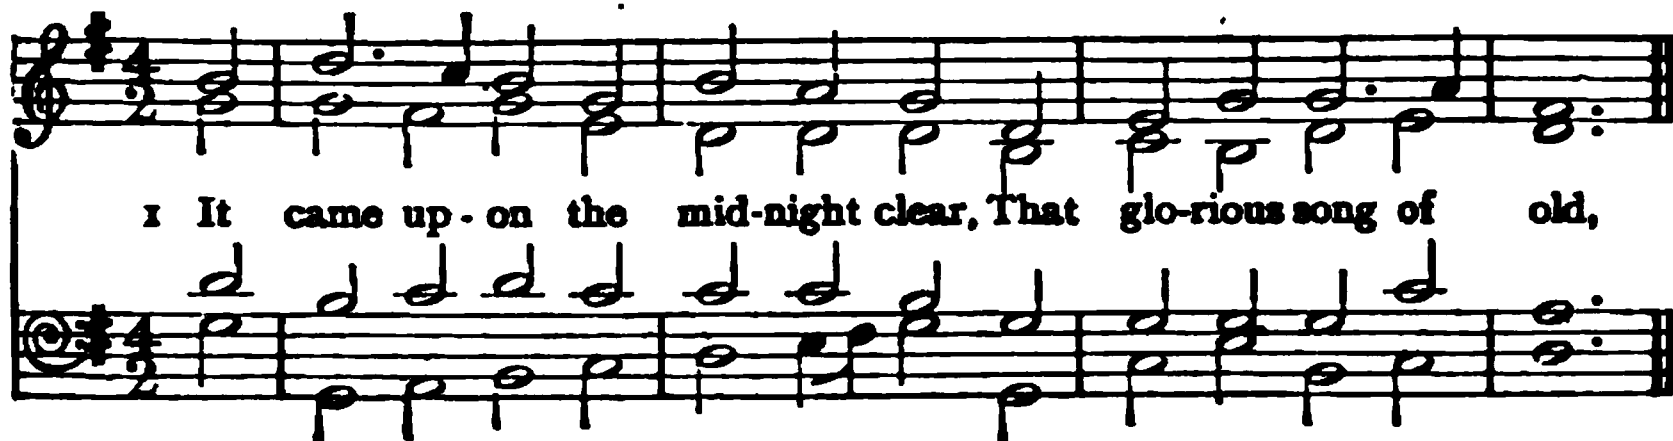

Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing:
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo! the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years,
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth

The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the

Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,

2 We wear the cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learned like vows to make;
We need not die; we cannot fight;
What may we do for Jesus'
sake?

3 O day by day each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within;
A death to die for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.

4 When deep within our swelling hearts
The thoughts of pride and anger
rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes;

5 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty
word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.

6 With smiles of peace and looks of love,
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humour brighten
there,
And do all still for Jesus' sake.

7 There's not a child so weak and small
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise,
That he may do for Jesus'
sake.

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a 4/2 time signature. It contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment of eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are printed below the staves.

Wise men in their wis - dom . . To His hum - ble home;

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The upper staff features a melodic line with some rests, while the lower staff provides a steady harmonic support. The lyrics are centered between the two staves.

The third system of music continues the composition. The melody in the upper staff shows some chromatic movement, and the accompaniment in the lower staff remains consistent in style. The lyrics are printed below the staves.

The fourth and final system of music on this page concludes the piece. The melody in the upper staff ends with a final cadence, and the accompaniment in the lower staff provides a concluding harmonic support. The lyrics are printed below the staves.

Epiphany.

2 There their Lord and Saviour
Meek and lowly lay,
Wondrous Light that led them
Onward on their way,
Ever now to lighten
Nations from afar,
As they journey homeward
By that guiding star.
Light of Light, etc.

3 Thou Who in a manger
Once hast lowly lain,
Who dost now in glory
O'er all kingdoms reign,
Gather in the heathen,
Who in lands afar
Ne'er have seen the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.
Light of Light, etc.

4 Gather in the outcasts,
All who've gone astray,
Throw Thy radiance o'er them,
Guide them on their way,
Those who never knew Thee,
Those who've wandered far,
Lead them by the brightness
Of Thy guiding star.
Light of Light, etc.

5 Onward through the darkness
Of the lonely night,
Shining still before them
With Thy kindly light,
Guide them, Jew and Gentile,
Homeward from afar,
Young and old together,
By Thy guiding star.
Light of Light, etc.

6 Until every nation,
Whether bond or free,
'Neath Thy starlit banner,
Jesus, follows Thee
O'er the distant mountains
To that heavenly home,
Where no sin nor sorrow
Evermore shall come.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed;
There to bend the knee before
Him Whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ! to Thee, our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

Need they no created light;

Thou its Sun which goes not

There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King. Amen.

 Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
 Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

 Vainly with gifts would His favour secure;
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

2 O who like Thee, so calm, so bright,
Thou Son of man, Thou Light of Light;
O who like Thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 O who like Thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men before?
So meek, forgiving, Godlike, high,
So glorious in humility!

4 And all Thy life's unchanging years,
A man of sorrows and of tears,
The cross, where all our sins were laid,
Upon Thy bending shoulders weighed.

5 And death, that sets the prisoner free,
Was pang and scoff and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glowed,
And mercy with Thy life-blood flowed.

Illuming all this way of woe;
And give me ever on the road

Thine everlasting home,
To sow the seed of truth below,
Thou didst vouchsafe to come.

4 And Thou wilt come again,
And heaven beneath Thee bow,
To reap the harvest Thou hast sown,
Sower and Reaper Thou.

3 And still from age to age,
Thou, gracious Lord, hast been
The Bearer forth of goodly seed,
The Sower still unseen.

5 Watch, Lord, Thy harvest field,

2 Alleluia thou resoundest,
True Jerusalem and free;
Alleluia, joyful mother,
All thy children sing with thee;
But by Babylon's sad waters
Mourning exiles now are we.

3 Alleluia cannot always
Be our song while here below;
Alleluia our transgressions

Make us for a while forego:
For the solemn time is coming
When our tears for sin must flow.

4 Therefore in our hymns we pray Thee,
Grant us, blessed Trinity,
At the last to keep Thine Easter
In our home beyond the sky;
There to Thee for ever singing
Alleluia joyfully. Amen.

2 O'er a faithless fallen world,
Raise your banner in the sky!
Let it float there wide unfurled!
Bear it onward! lift it high!

3 Mid the homes of want and woe,
Strangers to the living Word,
Let the Saviour's herald go!
Let the voice of hope be heard!

4 Where the shadows deepest lie,
Carry truth's unsullied ray!
Where are crimes of blackest dye,
There the saving sign display!

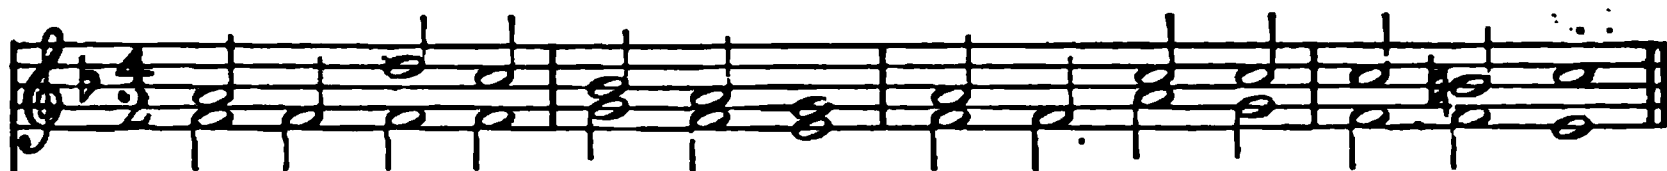

5 To the weary and the worn
Tell of realms where sorrows cease!
To the outcast and forlorn
Speak of mercy and of peace!

6 Guard the helpless! seek the strayed!
Comfort troubles! banish grief!
In the might of God arrayed,
Scatter sin and unbelief!

Still unsheathed the Spirit's sword,
Till the kingdoms of the world

2 O Jesus, Thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns Thy brow encircle,
And tears Thy face have marred:
O love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, Thou art pleading
In accents meek and low:
"I died for you, My children,
And will ye treat Me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore. Amen

Harmonies by J. S. BACH.

1 With bro - ken heart and con - trite sigh, A trembling sin - ner,

Lord, I cry: Thy par-doning grace is rich and free:

O God, be mer - ci - ful to me. A - men.

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and His cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me.

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But Thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me.

4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me.

5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me. Amen.

DAY'S Psalter, 1562.

2 As Thou with Satan didst contend,
 And didst the victory win,
 O give us strength in Thee to fight,
 In Thee to conquer sin.

3 As Thou didst hunger bear and thirst,
 So teach us, gracious Lord,
 To die to self, and chiefly live
 By Thy most holy Word.

4 And through these days of penitence,
 And through Thy Passion-tide,
 Yea, evermore, in life and death,
 Jesus! with us abide.

5 Abide with us, that so, this life
 Of suffering overpast,
 An Easter of unending joy
 We may attain at last! Amen.

2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let night disown each radiant star;
'Tis midnight with my soul, till He,
Bright Morning Star, bid darkness flee.

3 Ashamed of Jesus! O as soon
Let morning blush to own the sun!
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.

4 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend
On Whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No; when I blush, be this my shame,
That I no more revere His Name.

5 Ashamed of Jesus! empty pride!
I'll boast a Saviour crucified;
And O may this my portion be,
My Saviour not ashamed of me. Amen.

2 O Jesus, full of truth and grace,
More full of grace than I of sin;
Yet once again I seek Thy face:
Open Thine arms and take me in;

And love the faithless sinner still.

3 Thou know'st the way to bring me back,

Forgive, and bid me sin no more:

LEBBARUS.

7.7.7.6.

St. Alban's Tune Book, 1866;

Harmonized by ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1842-1900.

I God the Fa-ther, God the Son, God the Spi-rit, Three in One,
Hear us from Thy heavenly throne: Spare us, Ho-ly Trin-i-ty. A-men.

2 Thou Who, leaving crown and throne,
Camest here, an outcast lone,
That Thou mightest save Thine own:

Hear us, Holy Jesus.

3 Thou, despised, denied, refused,
And for man's transgressions bruised,
Sinless, yet of sin accused:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

4 Thou Who on the cross didst reign,
Dying there in bitter pain,
Cleansing with Thy blood our stain:

Hear us, Holy Jesus.

5 Shepherd of the straying sheep,
Comforter of them that weep,
Hear us crying from the deep:
Hear us, Holy Jesus.

6 That in Thy pure innocence
We may wash our souls' offense,
And find truest penitence:
We beseech Thee, Jesus.

7 That we give to sin no place,
That we never quench Thy grace,
That we ever seek Thy face:
We beseech Thee, Jesus.

8 That denying evil lust,
Living godly, meek, and just,
In Thee only we may trust:
We beseech Thee, Jesus.

9 That to sin for ever dead,
We may live to Thee instead,
And the narrow pathway tread:
We beseech Thee, Jesus.

10 When shall end the battle sore,
When our pilgrimage is o'er,
Grant Thy peace for evermore:
We beseech Thee, Jesus.

2 Here I kneel in wonder, viewing
 Mercy poured in streams of blood;
 Precious drops, for pardon suing,
 Make and plead my peace with God.

3 Truly blessèd is the station,
 Low before His cross to lie,
 While I see divine compassion
 Pleading in His dying eye.

4 Here I find my hope of heaven,
 While upon the Lamb I gaze;
 Loving much, and much forgiven,
 Let my heart o'erflow with praise.

5 Lord, in loving contemplation
 Fix my heart and eyes on Thee,
 Till I taste Thy full salvation,
 And Thine unveiled glories see.

6 For Thy sorrows I adore Thee,
 For the griefs that wrought our peace;
 Gracious Saviour, I implore Thee,
 In my heart Thy love increase. Amen.

Holy Week.

- 2 I see Thy strength and vigour,
 All fading in the strife,
 And death with cruel rigour,
 Bereaving Thee of life;
 O agony and dying!
 O love to sinners free!
 Jesus, all grace supplying,
 O turn Thy face on me.
- 3 In this, Thy bitter passion,
 Good Shepherd, think of me
 With Thy most sweet compassion, Unworthy though I be:
 Beneath Thy cross abiding
 For ever would I rest,
 In Thy dear love confiding,
 And with Thy presence blest.
- 4 Be near when I am dying;
 O show Thy cross to me:
 And to my succour flying,
 Come, Lord, and set me free.
 These eyes, new faith receiving,
 From Thee shall never move;
 For he who dies believing,
 Dies safely in Thy love. Amen.

1 There is a green hill far a-way, With-out a ci-ty wall,

Where the dear Lord was cru-ci-fied Who died to save us all. A-men.

2 We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

4 There was no other good enough
To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

3 He died that we might be forgiven,
He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by His precious blood.

5 O dearly, dearly has He loved!
And we must love Him too,
And trust in His redeeming blood,
And try His works to do.

BRESLAU.

L.M.

Leipzig, 1625.

Inscribed upon the cross we see
 In shining letters, God is love:
 He bears our sins upon the tree;
 He brings us mercy from above.

The cross, it takes our guilt away;
 It holds the fainting spirit up;
 It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
 And sweetens every bitter cup.

It makes the coward spirit brave,
 And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
 It takes its terror from the grave,
 And gilds the bed of death with light.

The balm of life, the cure of woe,
 The measure and the pledge of love,
 The sinner's refuge here below,
 The angels' theme in heaven above.

THOMAS KELLY, 1815.

To be sung in unison.

1 { At the cross her sta - tion keep - ing, Stood the mourn - ful
For her soul of joy be - reav - ed, Bowed with an - guish, mo - ther weep - ing, Where He hung, the dy - ing. Lord ; } deep - ly griev - ed, Felt the sharp and pierc - ing sword. } A - men.

- 2 O how sad and sore distressed
 Now was she, that mother blessed
 Of the sole-begotten One.
 Deep the woe of her affliction,
 When she saw the crucifixion
 Of her ever-glorious Son.
- 3 Who, on Christ's dear mother gazing,
 Pierced by anguish so amazing,
 Born of woman, would not weep?
 Who, on Christ's dear mother thinking,
 Such a cup of sorrow drinking,
 Would not share her sorrows deep?
- 4 For His people's sins chastised,
 She beheld her Son despised,
 Scourged, and crowned with thorns entwined;
 Saw Him then from judgment taken,
 And in death by all forsaken,
 Till His spirit He resigned.
- 5 Jesus, may her deep devotion
 Stir in me the same emotion,
 Fount of love, Redeemer kind;
 That my heart fresh ardour gaining,
 And a purer love attaining,
 May with Thee acceptance find. Amen.

2 Blest through endless ages
 Be the precious stream,
 Which from sin and sorrow
 Doth the world redeem!
 Abel's blood for vengeance
 Pleaded to the skies;

 For our pardon cries.

 Wafts its praise on high,
 Angel hosts, rejoicing,
 Make their glad reply.
 Lift ye then your voices;
 Swell the mighty flood;
 Louder still and louder
 Praise the precious blood. Amen.

Wea - ry the weight; One who will help Him waits At the gate.

3 See! they are traveling
On the same road;
Simon is sharing with Him the load.]

4 O whither wandering
Bear they that tree?
He Who first carries it,
Who is He?

II. The Answer.

The Story of the Cross.

7 As the swift moments fly
Through the blest week,
Read the great story the Cross will teach.]

8 Is there no beauty to
You who pass by,
In that lone figure which Marks that sky?

III. The Story of the Cross. Music as at I.

9 On the cross lifted
Thy face we scan,
Bearing that cross for us,
Son of man.

14 Loud is Thy bitter cry;
Sunk on Thy breast
Hangeth Thy bleeding head
Without rest.

10 Thorns form Thy diadem,
Rough wood Thy throne;
For us Thy blood is shed,
Us alone.

15 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
Who mocks at Thee:
Can it, my Saviour, be
All for me?

11 No pillow under Thee
To rest Thy head;
Only the splintered cross
Is Thy bed.

16 Gazing, afar from Thee,
Silent and lone,
Stand those few weepers Thou
Callest Thine own.

12 [Nails pierced Thy hands and feet,
Thy side the spear;
No voice is nigh to say
Help is near.

17 I see Thy title, Lord,
Inscribed above;
"Jesus of Nazareth,"
King of Love.]

13 Shadows of midnight fall,
Though it is day:
Thy friends and kinsfolk stand
Far away.

18 What, O my Saviour,
Here didst Thou see,
Which made Thee suffer and
Die for me?

[* IV. The Appeal. Music as at II.

19 Child of My grief and pain,
Watched by My love;
I came to call thee to Realms above.

21 For thee My blood I shed,
For thee alone;
I came to purchase thee,
For Mine own.

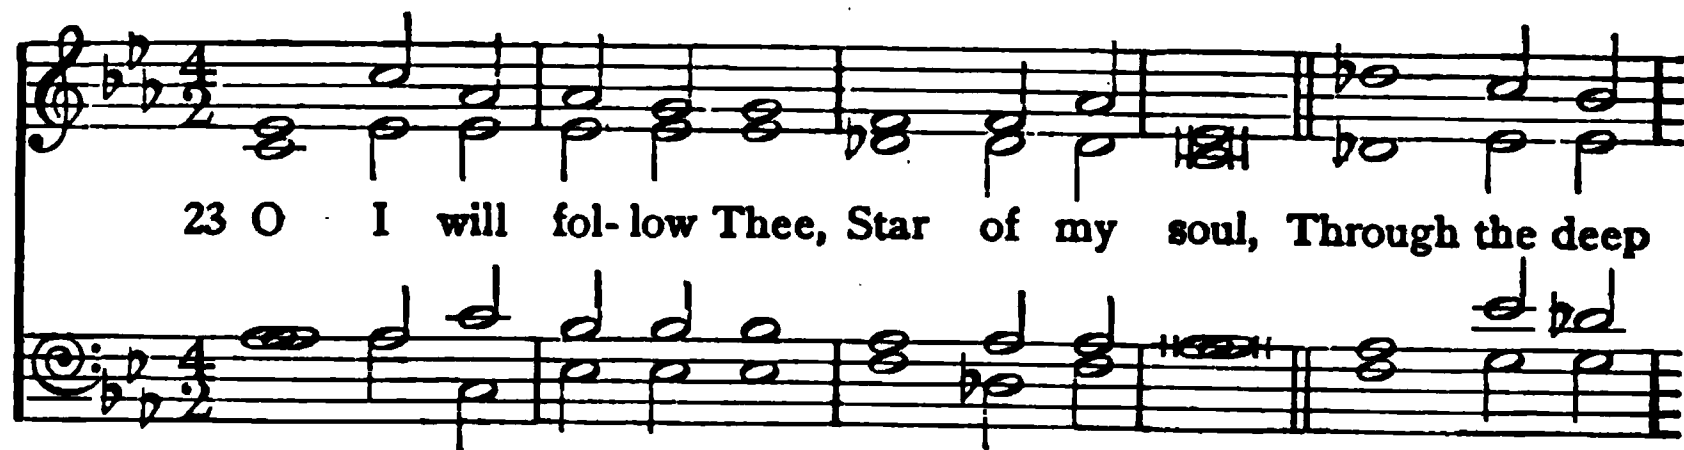

20 I saw thee wandering
Far off from Me:
In love I seek for Thee;
Do not flee.

22 Weep thou not for My grief,
Child of My love:
Strive to be with Me in Heaven above.]

All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
Speak His sorrow ended, hail His triumph now.
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day!

Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
Hours and passing moments praise Thee in their flight.
Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to Thee.
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on.
Hell to-day is vanquished, heaven is won to-day!

Thou, of life the Author, death didst undergo,
Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
Come then, True and Faithful, now fulfill Thy word,
'Tis Thine own third morning! rise, O buried Lord!
"Welcome, happy morning!" age to age shall say.

Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;

'Tis the spring of souls to-day;
Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen;
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His light, to Whom we give Laud and praise undying.

Now the queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendour,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection.

Neither might the gates of death,
Nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
Hold Thee as a mortal:
But to-day amidst Thine own
Thou didst stand, bestowing
That Thy peace which evermore
Passeth human knowing. Amen.

Easter Day.

2 O joyful sound! O glorious hour,
When by His own Almighty power
He rose and left the grave!
Now let our songs His triumph tell,
Who burst the bands of death and hell,
And ever lives to save.

3 The First-begotten of the dead,
For us He rose, our glorious Head,
Immortal life to bring;
What though the saints like Him shall die,
They share their Leader's victory,
And triumph with their King.

4 No more they tremble at the grave,
For Jesus will their spirits save,
And raise their slumbering dust:
O risen Lord, in Thee we live,
To Thee our ransomed souls we give,
To Thee our bodies trust. Amen.

1 At the Lamb's high feast we sing Praise to our vic - to - rious King,

Who hath wash'd us in the tide Flow - ing from His pierc - ed side;

Praise we Him, Whose love di - vine Gives His sa - cred blood for wine,

Gives His bod - y for the feast, Christ the vic - tim, Christ the priest. A - men.

2 Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.
Praise we Christ, Whose blood was shed
Paschal victim, Paschal bread;
With sincerity and love
Eat we manna from above.

3 Mighty victim from the sky,
Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight,
Thou hast brought us life and light;

Now no more can death appall,
Now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
And in Thee Thy saints shall rise.

4 Easter triumph, Easter joy,
Sin alone can this destroy;
From sin's power do Thou set free
Souls new-born, O Lord, in Thee.
Hymns of glory and of praise,
Risen Lord, to Thee we raise;
Holy Father, praise to Thee,
With the Spirit, ever be. Amen.

But we are lin-gering here, With sin and care op-pressed;

Lord, send Thy promised Comfort-er, And lead us to Thy rest. A-men.

2 Thou art gone up on high;
 But Thou didst first come down,
 Through earth's most bitter agony,
 To pass unto Thy crown;
 And girt with griefs and fears
 Our onward course must be;
 But only let that path of tears
 Lead us at last to Thee.

3 Thou art gone up on high;
 But Thou shalt come again,
 With all the bright ones of the sky
 Attendant in Thy train.

Before the worlds began,
And ye, who tread where He hath trod,

That all in Him may rest.

4 Crown Him of lords the Lord,

Their songs before Him day and night,
Their God, Redeemer, King.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing:
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth His Name,
From age to age the same,
And He must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us:
The prince of darkness grim,
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure,
One little word shall fell him.

4 That word above all earthly powers,
No thanks to them, abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through Him who with us sideth:
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also;
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is for ever. Amen.

The lyrics 'Our hearts are all untroubled. Amen.' are written below the top staff. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature.

Our hearts are all untroubled. Amen.

- 2 The might of water sinks to rest;
How calm yon river glideth,

The house where He abideth!
Hushed be all strife and din!
His presence dwells within,
She standeth unremoved,
By God Himself beloved,
Who helpeth her right early.
- 3 In vain the heathen shout for war,
In vain our foes assemble;
The voice of God is heard from far,
And earth itself shall tremble.
He breaks the spear and bow,
He lays the warrior low,
The chariot burns with flame;
Our trust is in His Name,
And Jacob's God our refuge!
- 4 Be still, the Lord is God alone,
Let all the world adore Him,
And bending low before His throne,
For pitying grace implore Him.
His kingdom is within,
O'er hearts made pure from sin,
Where love that casts out fear
Exults to feel Him near,

No hand but Thine shall fill;

failed,

I seek the treasure of Thy love,

To long-loved music set;
Glory to Thee for all the grace
I have not tasted yet.

5 I have a heritage of joy,
That yet I must not see;
The hand that bled to make it mine
Is keeping it for me.

6 There is a certainty of love
That sets my heart at rest;
A calm assurance for to-day,

Then shall my heart from earth be free,

No more, but Christ in me, may live!
My base affections crucify,

Nothing desire or seek, but Thee!

4 Still let Thy love point out my way!

But Who, I ask Thee, Who art Thou?
Tell me Thy Name, and tell me now.

But confident in self-despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessing speak,

Speak, or Thou never hence shalt move,
And tell me if Thy Name is Love.

4 'Tis Love! 'Tis Love! Thou diedst for me!

That I . . might ran-somed be, And quickened from the dead;

Thy life was given for me: What have I given for Thee?

2 Long years were spent for me
In weariness and woe,
That through eternity
Thy glory I might know.
Long years were spent for me:
Have I spent one for Thee?

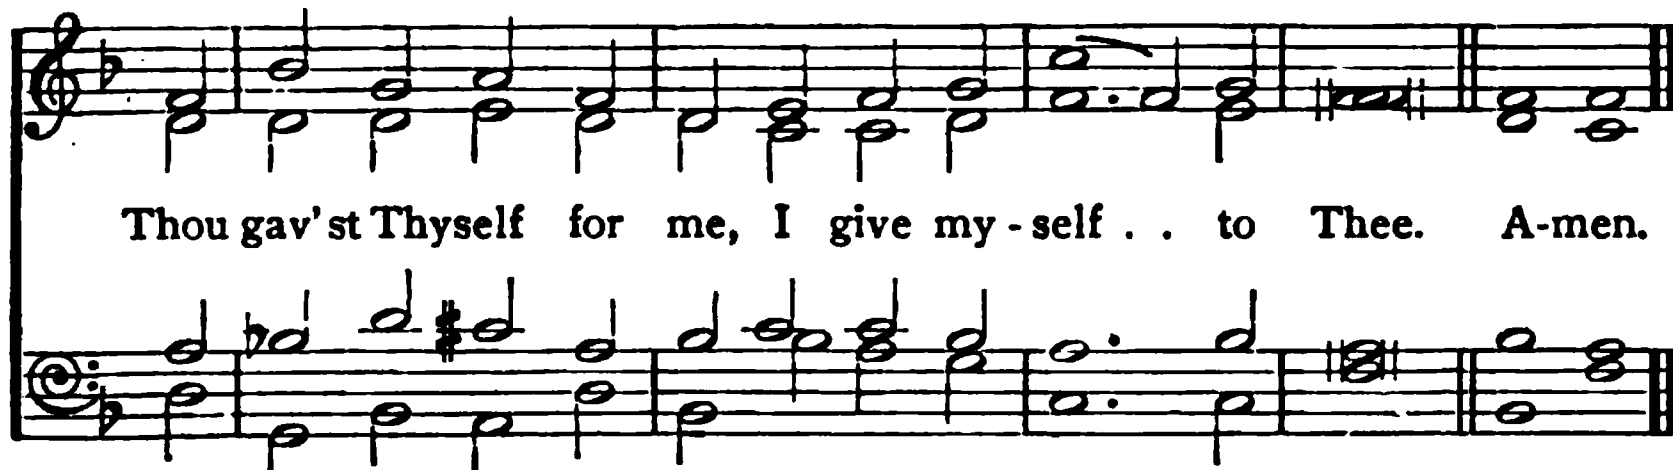

4 And Thou hast brought to me,
Down from Thy home above,
Salvation full and free,
Thy pardon and Thy love.
Great gifts Thou broughtest me:
What have I brought to Thee?

3 Thy Father's home of light,
Thy rainbow-circled throne,
Were left for earthly night,
For wanderings sad and lone.
Yea, all was left for me:
Have I left aught for Thee?

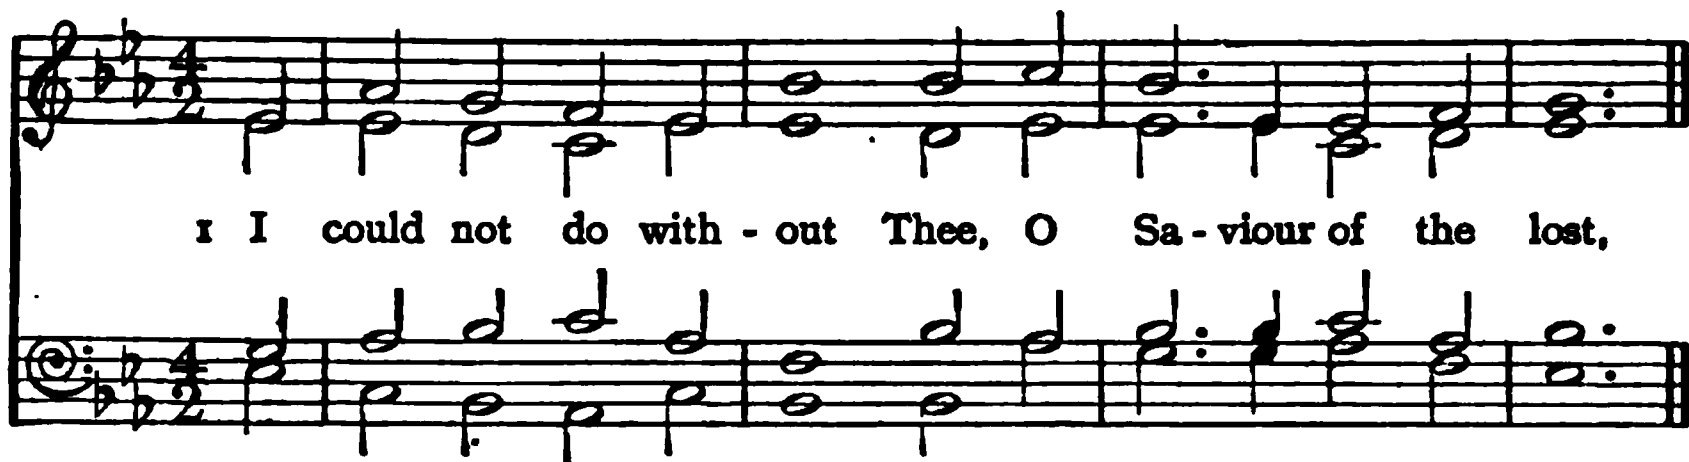

5 O let my life be given,
My years for Thee be spent;
World fetters all be riven,
And joy with suffering blent;
Thou gavest Thyself for me:
I give myself to Thee. Amen.

2 I could not do without Thee,
I cannot stand alone,
I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own ;
But Thou, beloved Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on Thee.

3 I could not do without Thee,
For O the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song :
How could I do without Thee ?
I do not know the way ;
Thou knowest, and Thou ledest,
And wilt not let me stray.

4 I could not do without Thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear ;
E'en when my eyes are holden,
I know that Thou art near.
How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be,
Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with Thee !

5 I could not do without Thee ;
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange deep longings,
Interpreting its need ;
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine,
And soothe, and hush, and calm it,
O blessed Lord, but Thine.

6 I could not do without Thee,
For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed ;
But Thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
I know Thou wilt be near me,
And whisper, " It is I." Amen.

1 There's a wideness in God's mer-cy Like the wideness of the sea;

There's a kindness in His jus-tice Which is more than li - ber - ty.

There is welcome for the sin - ner, And more gra-ces for the good;

There is mer-cy with the Saviour; There is heal-ing in His blood. A-men.

2 There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's fail-ings
Have such kindly judgment given.
There is plentiful redemption
In the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most infinitely kind.
If our love were but more simple,
We should take Him at His word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of the Lord.

FREDERICK WILLIAM FABER, 1862, cento.

2 The spirits that surround Thy throne
May bear the burning bliss;
But surely that is theirs alone
Who, undefiled, have never known
A fallen world like this.

3 O how shall I, whose native sphere
Is dark, whose mind is dim,
Before the Ineffable appear,
And on my naked spirit bear
The uncreated beam?

4 There is a way for man to rise
To that sublime abode:
An offering and a sacrifice,
A Holy Spirit's energies,
An Advocate with God:

5 These, these prepare us for the sight
Of holiness above:
The sons of ignorance and night
May dwell in the eternal Light,
Through the eternal Love!

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down and drink, and live.
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
I am this dark world's light;
Look unto Me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright.
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In Him my Star, my Sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk
Till traveling days are done.

Streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, Call for cease-less songs o praise. A-men.

2 Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by raptured saints above;
Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
While I sing redeeming love.

3 Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
Thou, to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with Thy blood.

Safe through life thus far I've come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heavenly home. Amen.

1 Lead, kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom, . . . Lead Thou me on!

The night is dark, and I am far from home, Lead Thou me on! . . .

Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see . . .

The dis - tant scene; one step e - nough for me. A - men.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

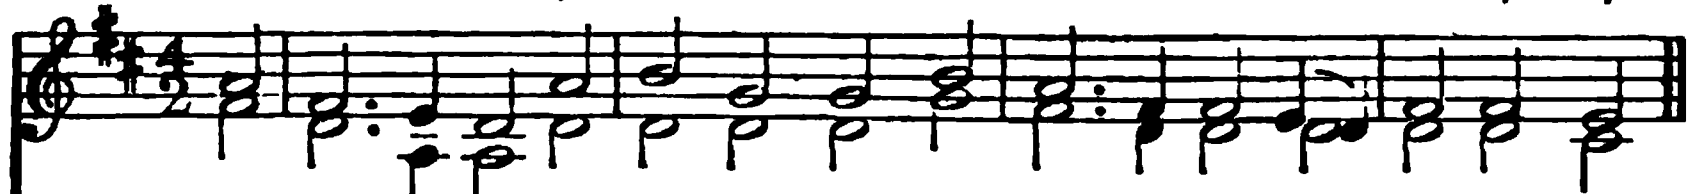

3 So long Thy power has blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile. Amen.

2 But, O dear Lord, we cry,
That we Thy face could see,
Thy blessèd face one moment's space,
Then might we follow Thee!

3 Dim tracts of time divide
Those golden days from me;
Thy voice comes strange o'er years of change;
How can I follow Thee?

4 Comes faint and far Thy voice
From vales of Galilee;
Thy vision fades in ancient shades;
How should we follow Thee?

5 O heavy cross: of faith
In what we cannot see!
As once of yore Thyself restore,
And help to follow Thee.

6 If not as once Thou cam'st

Come yet as guest within the breast

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us,
All our weakness Thou dost know;

Lone and dreary,

Through the desert Thou didst go.

Pleasure that can never cloy:

Pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy. Amen.

 Blindly we stumble when we walk alone,
 Involved in shadows of a darksome night,
 Only with Thee we journey safely on.

Deep in the prophets' sacred page,
Grand in the poets' wingèd word,
Slowly in type, from age to age,
Nations beheld their coming Lord;
Till through the deep Judean night
Rang out the song "Good-will to men!"
Hymned by the first-born sons of light,
Re-echoed now, "Good-will!" Amen.

That life of truth, those deeds of love,
That death of pain, mid hate and scorn;
These all are past, and now above
He reigns our King! once crowned with thorn.
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;
So sang His hosts, unheard by men;
Lift up your heads, for you He waits.
We lift them up! Amen, Amen!

Nations afar, in ignorance deep;
Isles of the sea, where darkness lay:
These hear His voice, they wake from sleep,
And throng with joy the upward way.
They cry with us, "Send forth Thy light,"
O Lamb, once slain for sinful men;
Burst Satan's bonds, O God of might;
Set all men free! Amen, Amen!

Sing to the Lord a glorious song,
Sing to His Name, His love forth tell;
Sing on, heaven's hosts, His praise prolong;
Sing, ye who now on earth do dwell:
Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
From angels, praise; and thanks from men;
Worthy the Lamb, enthroned to reign,
Glory and power! Amen, Amen!

And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

ST. STEPHEN.

- 4 Praise for the first of martyrs, who saw Thee ready stand
To aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand.
Share we with him, if summoned by death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness, in heaven the martyr crown.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST.

- 5 Praise for the loved disciple, exile on Patmos' shore;
Praise for the faithful record he to Thy Godhead bore.
Praise for the mystic vision through him to us revealed.
May we, in patience waiting, with Thine elect be sealed.

THE HOLY INNOCENTS.

- 6 Praise for Thine infant martyrs, by Thee with tenderest love
Called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
O Rachel! cease thy weeping: they rest from pains and cares.
Lord, grant us hearts as guileless and crowns as bright as theirs.

THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL.

- 7 Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe,
Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his conversion, we glorify to-day;
So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit's ray.

ST. MATTHIAS.

- 8 Lord, Thine abiding presence directs the wondrous choice;
For one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false apostles for evermore defend,
And by Thy parting promise be with her to the end.

ST. MARK.

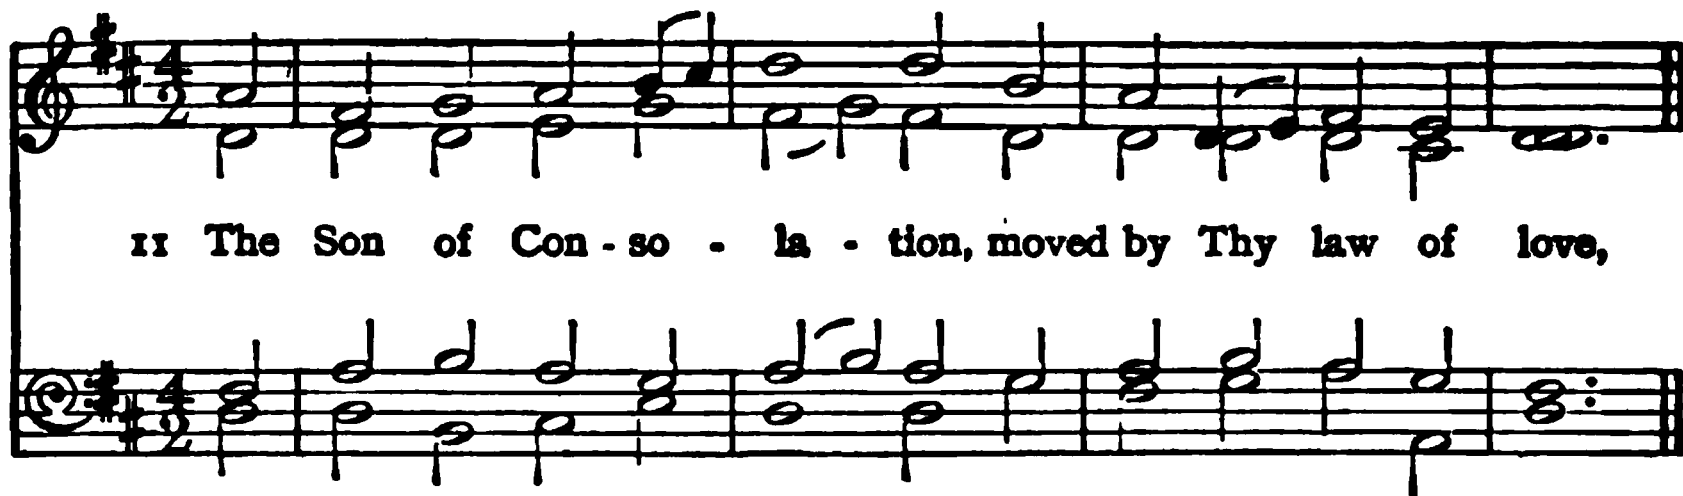

- 9 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, the weak by grace made strong.
Whose labours and whose Gospel enrich our triumph song.
May we in all our weakness find strength from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee, the Vine, abide.

ST. PHILIP AND ST. JAMES.

- 10 All praise for Thine apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,
And him surnamed Thy brother; keep us Thy brethren true,
And grant us grace to know Thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
To wrestle with temptations till victors in the strife.

ST. JOHN BAPTIST.

- 12 We praise Thee for the Baptist, forerunner of the Word,
Our true Elias, making a highway for the Lord.
Of prophets last and greatest, he saw Thy dawning ray:
Make us the rather blessed, who love Thy glorious day.

ST. PETER.

- 13 Praise for Thy great apostle, the eager and the bold;
Thrice falling, yet repentant, thrice charged to keep Thy Fold.
Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, to guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage, with humble, earnest will.

ST. JAMES.

- 14 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, who, slain by Herod's sword,
Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree,
And count it joy to suffer, if so brought nearer Thee.

ST. BARTHOLOMEW.

- 15 All praise for Thine apostle, the faithful, pure, and true,
Whom underneath the fig tree Thine eye all-seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed,
That Thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

ST. MATTHEW.

- 16 Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy human life declared,
Who, worldly gains forsaking, Thy path of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous mammon O give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling, may rise and follow Thee.

ST. LUKE.

- 17 For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
The Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour,
And with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

ST. SIMON AND ST. JUDE.

- 18 Praise, Lord, for Thine apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest the faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren, at length Thy rest attain.

GENERAL ENDING.

- 19 Apostles, prophets, martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
For these, passed on before us, Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, would serve Thee more and more.
- 20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone. Amen.

1 Je - sus calls us; o'er the tu - mult Of our life's wild, restless sea,

Day by day His sweet voice soundeth, Say - ing, "Chris - tian, follow Me": A - men.

2 As of old, Saint Andrew heard it
 By the Galilean lake,
 Turned from home, and toil, and kindred,
 Leaving all for His dear sake.

3 Jesus calls us from the worship
 Of the vain world's golden store;
 From each idol that would keep us,
 Saying, "Christian, love Me more."

Holy Days.

4 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,

"That we love Him more than these."

5 Jesus calls us: by Thy mercies,

Give our hearts to Thine obedience,
Serve and love Thee best of all. Amen.

1 We sing the glo-rious con-quest Be-fore Da-mas-cus gate,

When Saul, the Church's spoil-er, Came breathing threats and hate;

The rav-ening wolf rushed for-ward Full ear-ly to the prey;

But lo! the Shep-herd met him, And bound him fast to-day. A-men.

2 O glory most excelling
That smote across his path!
O light that pierced and blinded
The zealot in his wrath!
O voice that spake within him
The calm, reproving word!
O love that sought and held him
The bondman of his Lord!

3 O Wisdom ordering all things
In order strong and sweet,
What nobler spoil was ever
Cast at the Victor's feet?

What wiser master-builder
E'er wrought at Thine employ
Than he, till now so furious
Thy building to destroy?

4 Lord, teach Thy Church the lesson,
Still in her darkest hour
Of weakness and of danger,
To trust Thy hidden power:
Thy grace by ways mysterious
The wrath of man can bind,
And in Thy boldest foeman
Thy chosen saint can find. Amen.

- 2 In the arms of her who bore Him,
 Virgin pure, behold Him lie,
 While His aged saints adore Him,
 Ere in perfect faith they die:
 Alleluia! Alleluia!
 Lo, the incarnate God most high!
- 3 Jesus, by Thy Presentation,
 Thou Who didst for us endure,
 Make us see Thy great salvation,
 Seal us with Thy promise sure;
 And present us in Thy glory
 To Thy Father cleansed and pure.
- 4 Prince and Author of salvation,
 Be Thy boundless love our theme!
 Jesus, praise to Thee be given
 By the world Thou didst redeem,
 With the Father and the Spirit,

2 But, borne upon the throne
Of Mary's gentle breast,
Watched by her duteous love,
In her fond arms at rest:
Thus to His Father's house

3 Hail to the great First-born
Whose ransom price they pay!
The Son, before all worlds;
The Child of man, to-day;
That He might ransom us
Who still in bondage lay.

Come to Thy temples here,

3 The son of Consolation!

The fourth system of music concludes the piece. The melody ends with a final cadence, and the accompaniment provides a concluding harmonic support.

Holy Days.

2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing,
 "Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come";
 And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
 The music of the Gospel leads us home.
 Angels of Jesus, etc.

3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
 The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
 And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
 Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.
 Angels of Jesus, etc.

4 Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
 The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
 Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,
 And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
 Angels of Jesus, etc.

5 Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
 Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
 Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
 And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.
 Angels of Jesus, etc.

2 Some wait around Him ready still
To sing His praise and do His will,
And some, when He commands them, go
To guard His servants here below.

3 Lord, give Thine angels every day
Command to guard us on our way,
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep.

4 So shall no wicked thing draw near
To do us harm, or cause us fear;
And we shall dwell, when life is past,
With angels round Thy throne at last. Amen.

1 What thanks and praise to Thee we owe, O Priest and Sac - ri - fice div - ine,
For Thy dear saint thro' whom we know So many a gracious word of Thine;

2 Whom Thou didst choose to tell the tale
Of all Thy manhood's toils and tears,
And for a moment lift the veil
That hides Thy boyhood's spotless years.

3 And still the Church through all her days
Uplifts the strains that never cease,
The blessed Virgin's hymn of praise,
The aged Simeon's words of peace.

4 O happy saint! whose sacred page,
So rich in words of truth and love,
Pours on the Church from age to age
This healing unction from above;

5 The witness of the Saviour's life,
The great apostle's chosen friend
Through weary years of toil and strife,
And still found faithful to the end.

6 So grant us, Lord, like him to live,
Beloved by man, approved by Thee,
Till Thou at last the summons give,
And we, with him, Thy face shall see.

The saints of God! their wanderings done,
No more their weary course they run,
No more they faint, no more they fall,

The saints of God their vigil keep,
While yet their mortal bodies sleep,
Till from the dust they too shall rise
And soar triumphant to the skies:
O happy saints! rejoice and sing:
He quickly comes, your Lord and King!

The saints of God! life's voyage o'er,
Safe landed on that blissful shore,
No stormy tempests now they dread,
No roaring billows lift their head:
O happy saints! for ever blest,

O Saviour! plead for us on high;
O Holy Ghost! our guide and friend,
Grant us Thy grace till life shall end;

These in God's own truth arrayed,
Clad in robes of purest whiteness,
Robes whose luster ne'er shall fade,
Ne'er be touched by time's rude hand?
Whence comes all this glorious band?
- 3 These are they who have contended
For their Saviour's honour long
Wrestling on till life was ended,
Following not the sinful throng:
These, who well the fight sustained,
Triumph by the Lamb have gained.
- 4 These are they whose hearts were riven,
Sore with woe and anguish tried,
Who in prayer full oft have striven
With the God they glorified:
Now, their painful conflict o'er,
God has bid them weep no more.

Offering up to Christ their will,
Soul and body consecrated,
Day and night they serve Him still.

All that we have is Thine a - lone, A trust, O Lord, from Thee. A - men.

- 2 May we Thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as Thou blessest us,
To Thee our first-fruits give.
- 3 O hearts are bruised and dead,
And homes are bare and cold,
And lambs for whom the Shepherd bled
Are straying from the Fold!
- 4 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angels' work below.
- 5 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace,

Though dim our faith may be;
Whate'er for Thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto Thee. Amen.

Or there Thy conflict see,

And not remember Thee?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,

1 Glo-ry to the bless-ed Je - sus ! Who for us was born,

In the sta - ble, cold and poor, On glad Christmas morn. A-men.

2 Glory to the blessèd Jesus !
Who was crucified
On Good Friday for our sins :
Loving us He died.

3 Glory to the blessèd Jesus !
Who for sinners lay
In the tomb, and rose upon
Happy Easter Day.

4 Glory to the blessèd Jesus !
He, Who is our Way,
Went up in a cloud to heaven
On Ascension Day.

5 Glory to the blessèd Jesus !
Who at Whitsuntide
Sent His Holy Spirit down
With us to abide.

6 Glory to the blessèd Jesus !
We will praise His love,
All our days on earth below,
And for aye above. Amen.

- 2 Those three Sundays before Lent
Will prepare us to repent,
That in Lent we may begin
Earnestly to mourn for sin.
- 3 Holy Week and Easter, then,
Tell Who died and rose again:
O that happy Easter day!
"Christ is risen indeed," we say.
- 4 Yes, and Christ ascended, too,
To prepare a place for you;
So we give Him special praise,
After those great forty days.
- 5 Then, He sent the Holy Ghost,
On the day of Pentecost,
With us ever to abide:
Well may we keep Whitsuntide!
- 6 Last of all, we humbly sing
Glory to our God and King,
Glory to the One in Three,
On the Feast of Trinity. Amen.

HENRY J. GAUNTLETT, 1858.

He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all,
And His shelter was a stable,
And His cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

For He is our childhood's pattern;
Day by day like us He grew;
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us He knew;
And He feeleth for our sadness,
And He shareth in our gladness.

And, through all His wondrous childhood,
He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms He lay;
Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as He.

And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love;
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above;
And He leads His children on
To the place where He is gone.

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see Him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars His children crowned,
All in white shall wait around.

2 I wish that His hands had been placed on my head,
That His arms had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when He said,
"Let the little ones come unto Me."

3 Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share in His love;
And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,
I shall see Him and hear Him above,

4 In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children shall be with Him there,
For "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

5 But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
Never heard of that heavenly home;
I wish they could know there is room for them all,
And that Jesus has bid them to come.

1 By cool Sion's shady hill,
 In the garden of the Lord,
 The rose that blooms beneath the hill,
 Must shortly fade away.

2 Lo! such the child whose early feet
 The paths of peace have trod,
 Whose secret heart, with innocence sweet,
 Is upward drawn to God.

3 By cool Sion's shady hill
 The rose must decay:
 The rose that blooms beneath the hill
 Must shortly fade away.

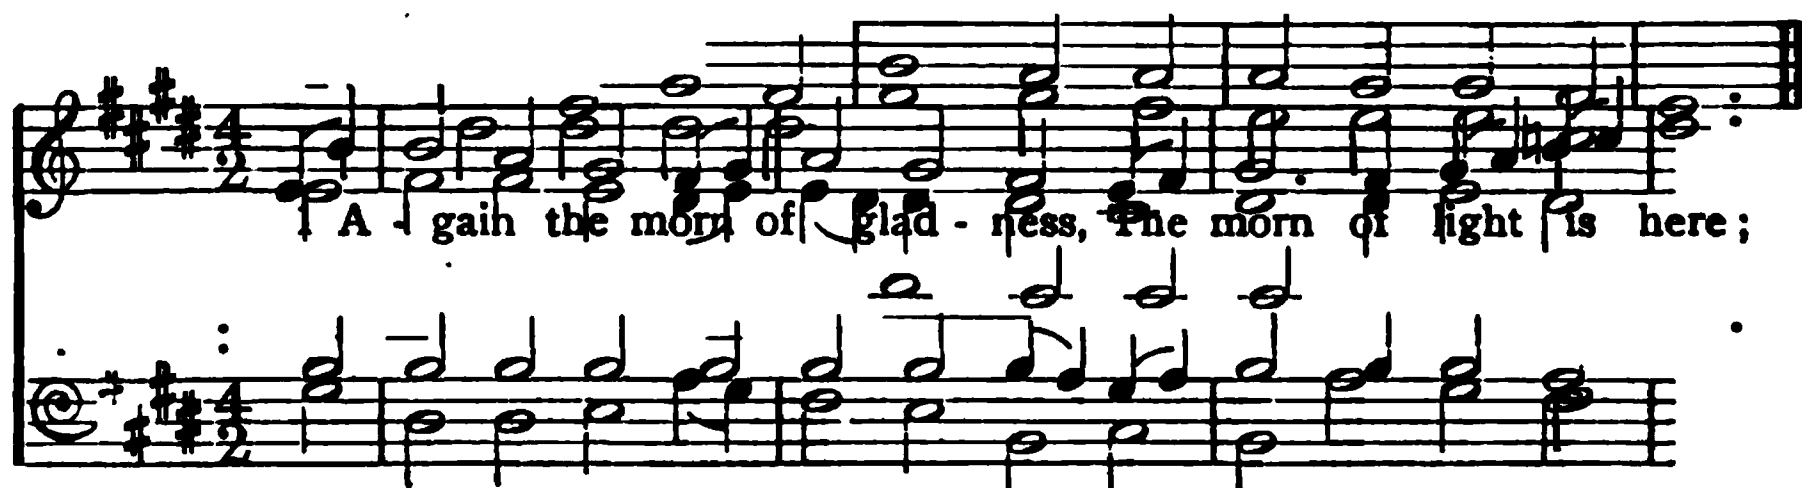

4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
 Of man's maturer age
 Will shake the soul with sorrow's power,
 And stormy passion's rage.

5 O Thou whose infant feet were found
 Within Thy Father's shrine,
 Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
 Were all alike divine,

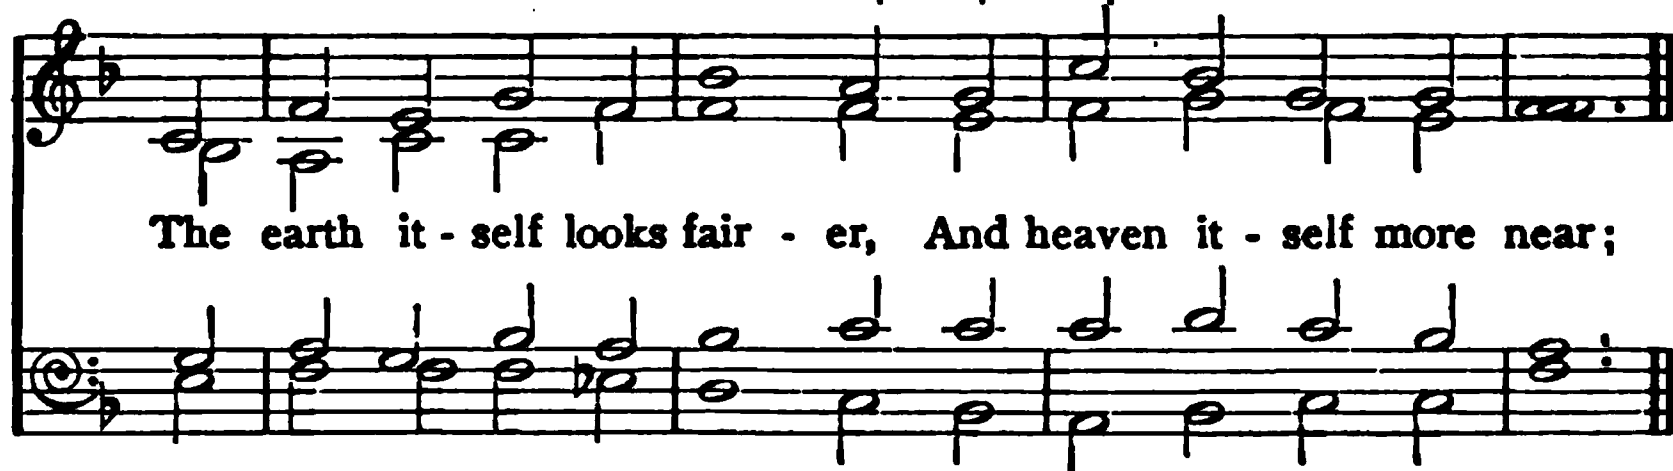

6 Dependent on Thy bounteous breath,
 We seek Thy grace alone,
 In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
 To keep us still Thine own. Amen.

- 2 Again, O loving Saviour,
The children of Thy grace
Prepare themselves to seek Thee
Within Thy chosen place.
Our song shall rise to greet Thee,
If Thou our hearts wilt raise;
If Thou our lips wilt open,
Our mouth shall show Thy praise.
Glory, etc.
- 3 The shining choir of angels
That rest not day or night,
The crowned and palm-decked martyrs,
The saints arrayed in white,
The happy lambs of Jesus
In pastures fair above—
These all adore and praise Him,
Whom we too praise and love.
Glory, etc.
- 4 The Church on earth rejoices
To join with these to-day;
In every tongue and nation
She calls her sons to pray;
Across the northern snow-fields,
Beneath the Indian palms,
She makes the same pure offering,
And sings the same sweet psalms.
Glory, etc.
- 5 Tell out, sweet bells, His praises!
Sing, children, sing His Name!
Still louder and still farther
His mighty deeds proclaim,
Till all whom He redeemed
Shall own Him Lord and King,
Till every knee shall worship,
And every tongue shall sing,
Glory be to Jesus,
Let all creation say, etc. Amen.

Sunny slopes and scented shades;
Keep us, Lord, from slothful ease.
Holy Jesus, day by day,

3 There are sandy wastes that lie
Cold and sunless, vast and drear,

Till we reach the promised rest!

The first system of musical notation for the 'VENI CREATOR' plainsong. It features a single melodic line on a five-line staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in a square-note style. Below the staff, the lyrics 'Come, Ho-ly Ghost, Cre - a - tor blest, Vouch-safe with-in our' are printed. To the left of the staff, a large brace indicates the accompaniment for a keyboard instrument, consisting of two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. The accompaniment is written in a square-note style, with the bass staff often providing a harmonic foundation for the melody.

souls to rest; Come with Thy grace and heaven-ly aid,

The second system of musical notation continues the plainsong. It follows the same format as the first system, with a single melodic line and a keyboard accompaniment. The lyrics 'souls to rest; Come with Thy grace and heaven-ly aid,' are printed below the staff. The musical notation continues to be in square notes on a five-line staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat.

The musical notation continues to be in square notes on a five-line staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The system ends with a double bar line.

Arr. by SAMUEL DYER, 1828.

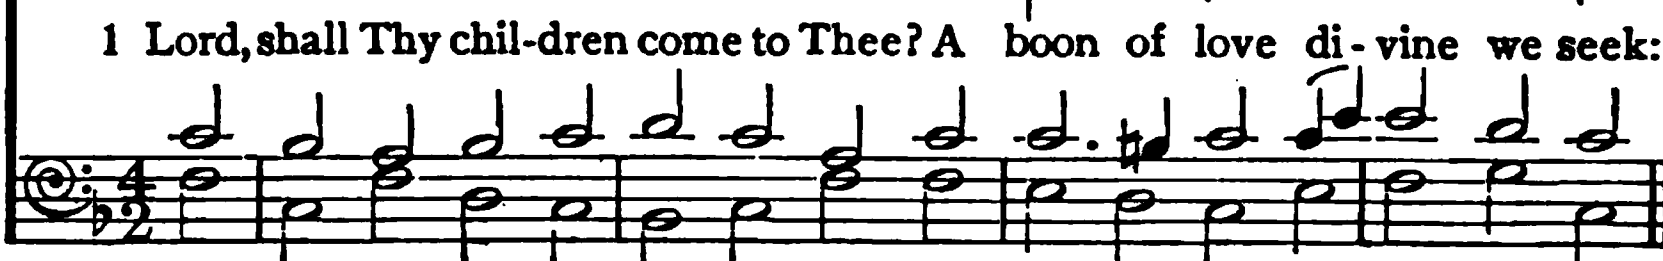

1 Come, Ho - ly Ghost, Cre - a - tor blest, Vouchsafe with - in our souls to rest; Come with Thy grace and heav'n - ly aid,
And fill the hearts which Thou hast made. A - men.

- 2 To Thee, the Comforter, we cry;
To Thee, the gift of God most High;
The Fount of Life, the fire of love,
The soul's anointing from above.
- 3 The sacred, sevenfold grace is Thine,
Dread Finger of the Hand divine:
The promise of the Father Thou!
Who dost the tongue with power endow.
- 4 Thy light to every sense impart,
And shed Thy love in every heart;
Thine own unfailing might supply
To strengthen our infirmity.
- 5 Drive far away our ghostly foe,
And Thine abiding peace bestow;
If Thou be our preventing guide,
No evil can our steps betide. Amen.

Latin; Tr. EDWARD CASWALL and compilers of Hymns Ancient and Modern, 1861; alt., from RICHARD MANT, 1837.

1 Lord, shall Thy chil-dren come to Thee? A boon of love di-vine we seek:

Brought to Thine arms in in-fan-cy, Ere heart could feel or tongue could speak,

Thy children pray for grace, that they May come themselves to Thee to-day.

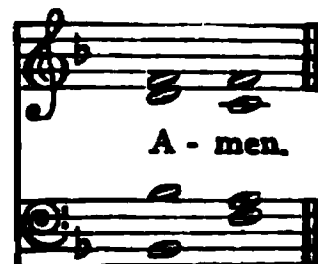

2 Lord, shall we come, and come again,
 Oft as we see Thy table spread,
 And tokens of Thy dying pain,
 The wine poured out, the broken bread?
 Bless Thou, O Lord, Thy children's prayer,
 That they may come and find Thee there.

3 Lord, shall we come—not thus alone
 At holy time or solemn rite,
 But every hour till life be flown,
 Through weal or woe, in gloom or light,
 Come to Thy throne of grace, that we
 In faith, hope, love, confirmed may be?

4 Lord, shall we come, come yet again?
 Thy children ask one blessing more:
 To come, not now alone, but then—
 When life, and death, and time are o'er;
 Then, then to come, O Lord, and be Confirmed in heaven, confirmed by Thee.

2 Spirit of Wisdom ! turn our eyes
From earth and earthly vanities,
To heavenly truth and love.
Spirit of Understanding true !
Our souls with holy light endue
To seek the things above.

3 Spirit of Counsel ! be our Guide ;
Teach us by earthly struggles tried
Our heavenly crown to win.
Spirit of Fortitude ! Thy power
Be with us in temptation's hour,
To keep us free from sin.

4 Spirit of Knowledge ! lead our feet
In Thine own path secure and sweet,
By angel footsteps trod ;

Where Thou our Guardian true shalt Spirit of gentle Piety ! [be,
To keep us close to God.

5 But most of all, be ever near,
Spirit of God's most holy Fear !
In our hearts' inmost shrine :
Our souls with loving reverence fill,
To worship His most holy will,
All righteous and divine.

6 So, dearest Lord, through peace or Lead us to everlasting life, [strife,
Where only rest may be.
What matter where our lot is cast,
If only it may end at last
In Paradise with Thee ! Amen.

2 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter
rest.

O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me:
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee.

3 Take, my soul, thy full salvation;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear:

Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
What a Father's smile is thine;
What a Saviour died to win thee:
Child of heaven, shouldst thou repine?

4 Haste then on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee
there.

Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days;
Hope soon change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

2 O let me feel Thee near me!
 The world is ever near;
 I see the sights that dazzle,
 The tempting sounds I hear;
 My foes are ever near me,
 Around me and within;
 But, Jesus, draw Thou nearer,
 And shield my soul from sin.

3 O let me hear Thee speaking
 In accents clear and still,
 Above the storms of passion,
 The murmurs of self-will!
 O speak to reassure me,
 To hasten or control!
 O speak, and make me listen,
 Thou Guardian of my soul!

4 O Jesus, Thou hast promised
 To all who follow Thee,
 That where Thou art in glory
 There shall Thy servant be;
 And, Jesus, I have promised
 To serve Thee to the end;
 O give me grace to follow,
 My Master and my Friend!

5 O let me see Thy footmarks,
 And in them plant my own!
 My hope to follow duly
 Is in Thy strength alone.
 O guide me, call me, draw me,
 Uphold me to the end!
 At last in heaven receive me,
 My Saviour and my Friend! Amen!

2 O Saviour, Guest most boun-

Of old in Galilee,
Vouchsafe to-day Thy presence
With these who call on Thee;
Their store of earthly gladness
Transform to heavenly wine,
And teach them, in the tasting,
To know the gift is Thine.

3 O Spirit of the Father,
Breathe on them from above,
So mighty in Thy pureness,
So tender in Thy love;
That, guarded by Thy presence,

From sin and strife kept free,
Their lives may own Thy guidance,
Their hearts be ruled by Thee.

4 Except Thou build it, Father,
The house is built in vain;
Except Thou, Saviour, bless it,
The joy will turn to pain;
But naught can break the mar-

Of hearts in Thee made one,
And love Thy Spirit hallows
Is endless love begun. Amen.

I thank Thee too that Thou hast made
Joy to abound;
So many gentle thoughts and deeds
Circling us round,
That in the darkest spot of earth
Some love is found.

I thank Thee more that all our joy
Is touched with pain;
That shadows fall on brightest hours;
That thorns remain;
So that earth's bliss may be our guide,
And not our chain.

For Thou Who knowest, Lord, how soon
Our weak heart clings,
Hast given us joys, tender and true,
Yet all with wings;
So that we see, gleaming on high.
Diviner things.

I thank Thee, Lord, that Thou hast kept
The best in store;
We have enough, yet not too much
To long for more:
A yearning for a deeper peace,
Not known before.

2 Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not,
Or breathe the prayer divinely taught,

3 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved, no longer nigh,
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done!"

4 If Thou should'st call me to resign
What most I prize, it ne'er was mine:
I only yield Thee what is Thine;
"Thy will be done!"

5 Let but my fainting heart be blest
With Thy good Spirit for its guest,
My God, to Thee I leave the rest;

6 Renew my will from day to day,
Blend it with Thine, and take away
All that now makes it hard to say,

The prayer oft mixed with tears before,

How the Good Shepherd followed, and how kindly
He bore it home, upon His shoulders laid;
And healed the bleeding wounds, and soothed the pain,
And brought back life, and hope, and strength again.

Thou knowest all the present; each temptation,
Each toilsome duty, each foreboding fear;
All to each one assigned, of tribulation,
Or to beloved ones, than self more dear;
All pensive memories, as we journey on,
Longings for vanished smiles and voices gone.

Thou knowest all the future; gleams of gladness
By stormy clouds too quickly overcast;
Hours of sweet fellowship and parting sadness,
And the dark river to be crossed at last.
O what could hope and confidence afford
To tread that path, but this? Thou knowest, Lord.

Thou knowest, not alone as God, all-knowing;
As Man, our mortal weakness Thou hast proved;
On earth, with purest sympathies o'erflowing,
O Saviour, Thou hast wept, and Thou hast loved;
And love and sorrow still to Thee may come,
And find a hiding-place, a rest, a home.

Therefore we come, Thy gentle call obeying,
And lay our sins and sorrows at Thy feet;
On everlasting strength our weakness staying,
Clothed in Thy robe of righteousness complete:
Then rising and refreshed we leave Thy throne,
And follow on to know as we are known. Amen.

WILLIAM H. CALLCOTT, 1867.

1 Thou art my hid-ing place, O Lord, In Thee I put my trust;

En-cour-aged by Thy ho - ly word, A fee - ble child of dust:

I have no ar - gu-ment be - side, I urge no oth - er plea; And

'tis e-nough my Sa-viour died, My Saviour died for me. A - men.

2 When storms of fierce temptation beat,
And furious foes assail,
My refuge is the mercy-seat,
My hope within the veil.
From strife of tongues and bitter words
My spirit flies to Thee:
Joy to my heart the thought affords,
My Saviour died for me.

3 Mid trials heavy to be borne,
When mortal strength is vain,
A heart with grief and anguish torn,
A body racked with pain,
Ah! what could give the sufferer
rest,
Bid every murmur flee,
But this, the witness in my breast
That Jesus died for me?

JAMES S. ANDERSON, 1885.

2 Our outward lips confess the Name
All other names above;
Love only knoweth whence it came,
And comprehendeth love.

3 We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For Him no depths can drown:

4 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is He;
And faith has still its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

5 The healing of His seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

6 Through Him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with His Name.

7 O Lord, and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own Thy sway, we hear Thy call,
We test our lives by Thine. Amen.

To do the will of Jesus, this is rest.

In Jesus' keeping we are safe, and they.

5 Peace, perfect peace, our future all unknown?
Jesus we know, and He is on the throne.

6 Peace, perfect peace, death shadowing us and ours?
Jesus has vanquished death and all its powers.

- 2 We would see Jesus, the great rock foundation
Whereon our feet were set by sovereign grace:
Nor life nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see His face.
- 3 We would see Jesus: other lights are paling,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing:
We would not mourn them, for we go to Thee.
- 4 We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers
Round the dear objects it has loved so long,
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers;
Our love to Thee makes not this love less strong.
- 5 We would see Jesus: sense is all too binding,
And heaven appears too dim, too far away;
We would see Thee, Thyself our hearts reminding
What Thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.
- 6 We would see Jesus: this is all we're needing;
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

1 We come un - to our fa - thers' God: Their Rock is our sal - va - tion;

The first system of the hymn features a single melodic line for the voice, written in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 4/2 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like. Below the voice line is a piano accompaniment consisting of two staves, treble and bass clef, with a grand staff bracket. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines in both hands.

'Th'e - ternal arms, their dear a - bode, We make our ha - bi - ta - tion;

The second system continues the melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part features more complex chordal textures and some arpeggiated figures in the bass line.

The third system concludes the hymn. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord in the bass line.

Thanksgiving Day.

2 The fire divine their steps that led
Still goeth bright before us,
The heavenly shield, around them spread,
Is still high holden o'er us;
The grace those sinners that subdued,
The strength those weaklings that renewed,
Doth vanquish, doth restore us.

3 Their joy unto their Lord we bring,
Their song to us descendeth;
The Spirit who in them did sing
To us His music lendeth:
His song in them, in us, is one;
We raise it high, we send it on—
The song that never endeth.

4 Ye saints to come, take up the strain,
The same sweet theme endeavour;
Unbroken be the golden chain!
Keep on the song for ever!
Safe in the same dear dwelling-place,
Rich with the same eternal grace,
Bless the same boundless Giver. Amen.

Guide us, bright and morning Star:
Fierce our foes, and hard the fight;
Arm us, Saviour, for the war.

Rock of strength, be Thou our stay;
In the pathless wilderness
Be our true and living way.

DEDICATION.

7.5.7.5.D.

MYLES B. FOSTER, 1890.

2 Can a child presume to choose
Where or how to live?
Can a Father's love refuse
All the best to give?
More Thou givest every day
Than the best can claim,
Nor withholdest aught that may
Glorify Thy Name.

3 If in mercy Thou wilt spare
Joys that yet are mine;
If on life, serene and fair,
Brighter rays may shine;

Let my glad heart, while it sings,
Thee in all proclaim,
And, whate'er the future brings,
Glorify Thy Name.

4 If Thou callest to the cross,
And its shadow come,
Turning all my gain to loss,
Shrouding heart and home;
Let me think how Thy dear Son
To His glory came,
And in deepest woe pray on,
Glorify Thy Name. Amen.

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,

Let not faith and hope forsake us;

From a long-felt grief;
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring;
Show us that bright shore

Lift Thou sad hearts and streaming eyes
To those fair glades of Paradise,
Where safe within the guarded gate
Thy ransomed souls in patience wait.

1 Je - sus, with Thy Church a-bide, Be her Sa - viour, Lord, and Guide,

While on earth her faith is tried: We beseech Thee, hear us. A-men.

- 2 Keep her life and doctrine pure,
Help her, patient to endure,
Trusting in Thy promise sure:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 2 May her voice be ever clear,
Warning of a judgment near,
Telling of a Saviour dear:
We beseech Thee, hear us.
- 4 All her fettered powers release,
Bid our strife and envy cease,
Grant the heavenly gift of peace:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

One in truth and charity,
Winning all to faith in Thee:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Seek the lost until she find,
And the broken-hearted bind:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

Make her watchmen strong and bold,
Fence her round, Thy peaceful fold:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile:
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen in his blindness
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high;
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?

Salvation, O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till each remotest nation
Has learnt Messiah's Name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, His story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature,
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

2 Let Jew and Gentile, meeting
From many a distant shore,
Around one altar kneeling,
One common Lord adore.
Let all that now divides us
Remove and pass away,
Like shadows of the morning
Before the blaze of day.

• 3 Let all that now unites us
More sweet and lasting prove,
A closer bond of union,
In a blest land of love.

Let war be learned no longer,
Let strife and tumult cease,
All earth His blessed kingdom,
The Lord and Prince of Peace.

4 O long-expected dawning,
Come with thy cheering ray!
When shall the morning brighten,
The shadows flee away?
O sweet anticipation!
It cheers the watchers on,
To pray, and hope, and labour,
Till the dark night be gone. Amen.

Its joys and pains belong;
The wrong of man to man on Thee
Inflicts a deeper wrong.

Therein to Thee allied:
All sweet accords of hearts and homes
In Thee are multiplied.

All labour vainly done;

 To young and old the gospel gladness bear:

4 Come, labour on.
 Away with gloomy doubts and faithless fear!
 No arm so weak but may do service here:
 By feeblest agents may our God fulfill
 His righteous will.

 No time for rest, till glows the western sky,
 While the long shadows o'er our pathway lie,
 And a glad sound comes with the setting sun,
 "Servants, well done."

2 Set up Thy standard, Lord, that we
 Who claim a heavenly birth
 May march with Thee to smite the lies
 That vex Thy groaning earth.

3 Ah! would we join that blest array,
 And follow in the might
 Of Him, the Faithful and the True,
 In raiment clean and white!

4 We fight for truth, we fight for
 God,
 Poor slaves of lies and sin!
 He who would fight for Thee on earth
 Must first be true within.

5 Then, God of truth for Whom we long,
 Thou Who wilt hear our prayer,
 Do Thine own battle in our hearts,
 And slay the falsehood there.

6 Still smite, still burn, till naught is left
 But God's own truth and love;
 Then, Lord, as morning dew come

 Rest on us from above.

 From every lie set free,
 Thy perfect truth shall dwell in us,

Processionals.

2 Bright the world and glorious,
Calm both earth and sea,
Noble in its grandeur
Stood man's purity;
Came the great transgression,
Came the saddening fall,
Death and desolation
Breathing over all.
Still in regal glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigned the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

3 Long the nations waited,
Through the troubled night,
Looking, longing, yearning,
For the promised light.
Prophets saw the morning
Breaking far away,
Minstrels sang the splendour
Of that opening day.
Whilst in regal glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigned the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

4 Brightly dawned the Advent
Of the new-born King,
Joyously the watchers
Heard the angels sing.
Sadly closed the evening
Of His hallowed life,
As the noontide darkness
Veiled the last dread strife.
Lo! again in glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reigns the King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

5 Lo! again He cometh,
Robed in clouds of light,
As the Judge eternal,
Armed with power and might.
Nations to His footstool
Gathered then shall be;
Earth shall yield her treasures,
And her dead, the sea.
Till the trumpet soundeth,
'Mid eternal light,
Reign, Thou King immortal,
Holy, infinite.

6 Jesus! Lord and Master,
Prophet, Priest, and King,
To Thy feet, triumphant,
Hallowed praise we bring.
Thine the pain and weeping,
Thine the victory;
Power, and praise, and honour,
Be, O Lord, to Thee.
High in regal glory,
'Mid eternal light,
Reign, O King immortal,
Holy, infinite. Amen.

To Thee all knees are bent, all voi - ces pray: . . .
Thy love has blest the wide world's won - drous sto - ry.
With light and life since E - den's dawn - ing day. A - men.

- 2 O Holy Father, Who hast led Thy children
In all the ages, with the Fire and Cloud,
Through seas dry-shod, through weary wastes bewildering,
To Thee, in reverent love, our hearts are bowed.
- 3 O Holy Jesus, Prince of Peace and Saviour,
To Thee we owe the peace that still prevails,
Stilling the rude wills of men's wild behaviour,
And calming passion's fierce and stormy gales.
- 4 O Holy Ghost, the Lord and the Life-giver,
Thine is the quickening power that gives increase.
From Thee have flowed, as from a pleasant river,
Our plenty, wealth, prosperity, and peace.
- 5 O Triune God, with heart and voice adoring,
Praise we the goodness that doth crown our days;
Pray we that Thou wilt hear us, still imploring
Thy love and favour, kept to us always. Amen.

8.7.8.7. D.

ARTHUR S. SULLIVAN, 1874.

2 Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
Glorious life, and life immortal,
On this holy Easter morn:
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
By His mighty enterprise,
We with Him to life eternal
By His resurrection rise.

3 Christ is risen, Christ, the first-fruits
Of the holy harvest-field,
Which will all its full abundance
At His second coming yield:
Then the golden ears of harvest
Will their heads before Him wave,
Ripened by His glorious sunshine
From the furrows of the grave.

4 Christ is risen, we are risen!
Shed upon us heavenly grace,
Rain and dew and gleams of glory
From the brightness of Thy face:
That, with hearts in heaven dwelling,
We on earth may fruitful be,
And by angel hands be gathered,
And be ever, Lord, with Thee.

5 Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia to the Saviour
Who has won the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit,
Fount of love and sanctity;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
To the Triune Majesty. Amen.

2 Jesus the Saviour reigns,
The God of truth and love:
When He had purged our stains,
He took His seat above.
Lift up your heart! lift up your voice!
Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

3 He sits at God's right hand,
Till all His foes submit,
And bow to His command,
And fall beneath His feet.
Lift up your heart! lift up your voice!
Rejoice! again I say, rejoice!

4 Rejoice in glorious hope!
Jesus the Judge shall come,
And take His servants up
To their eternal home.
We soon shall hear the archangel's voice;
The trump of God shall sound: Rejoice!

8.7.8.7. D.

HENRY SMART, 1868.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?
Lord of battles, God of armies,
He hath gained the victory!
He Who on the cross did suffer,
He Who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan;
He by death has spoiled His foes.

3 While He raised His hands in blessing,
He was parted from His friends;
While their eager eyes behold Him,
He upon the clouds ascends; [Him,
He Who walked with God and pleased
Preaching truth and doom to come,
He, our Enoch, is translated,
To His everlasting home.

4 Now our heavenly Aaron enters,
With His blood, within the veil;
Joshua now is come to Canaan,
And the kings before Him quail;
Now He plants the tribes of Israel
In their promised resting-place;
Now our great Elijah offers
Double portion of His grace.

5 Thou hast raised our human nature
On the clouds to God's right hand:
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with Thee in glory stand.
Jesus reigns, adored by angels;
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord, in Thine Ascension,
We by faith behold our own.

Processionals.

2 On this day of gladness,
 Bending low the knee
 In Thine earthly temple,
 Lord, we worship Thee;
 Celebrate Thy goodness,
 Mercy, grace, and truth,
 All Thy loving guidance
 Of our heedless youth.
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Throned above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Saviour,
 Hear our grateful cry.

3 For the little children
 Who have come to Thee;
 For the glad, bright spirits
 Who Thy glory see;
 For the loved ones resting
 In Thy dear embrace;
 For the pure and holy
 Who behold Thy face,
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Throned above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Saviour,
 Hear our grateful cry.

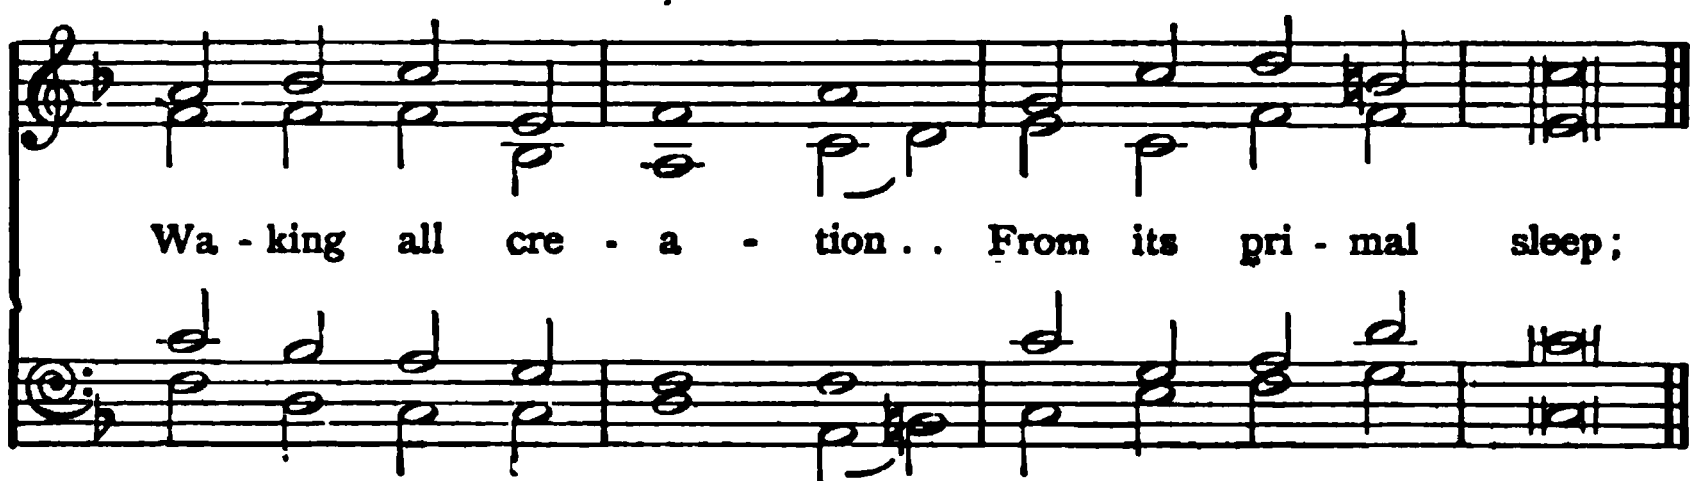

4 For Thy faithful servants
 Who have entered in;
 For Thy fearless soldiers
 Who have conquered sin;
 For the countless legions
 Who have followed Thee,
 Heedless of the danger,
 On to victory,
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Throned above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Saviour,
 Hear our grateful cry.

5 When the shadows lengthen,
 Show us, Lord, Thy way;
 Through the darkness lead us
 To the heavenly day.
 When our course is finished,
 Ended all the strife,
 Grant us with the faithful,
 Palms and crowns of life.
 Jesus, King of glory,
 Throned above the sky,
 Jesus, tender Saviour,
 Hear Thy children cry. Amen.

2 When the sun ariseth
In a cloudless sky,
May we feel Thy presence,
Holy Spirit, nigh;
Shed Thy radiance o'er us,
Keep it cloudless still,
Through the day before us,
Perfecting Thy will.
Light and Life immortal!
Hear us as we raise
Hearts, as well as voices,
Mingling prayer and praise.

3 When the fight is fiercest
In the noontide heat,
Bear us, Holy Spirit,
To our Saviour's feet;
There to find a refuge
Till our work is done,
There to fight the battle
Till the battle's won.
Light and Life immortal!
Hear us as we raise
Hearts, as well as voices,
Mingling prayer and praise.

4 If the day be falling
Sadly as it goes,
Slowly in its sadness
Sinking to its close,
May Thy love in mercy,
Kindling, ere it die,
Cast a ray of glory
O'er our evening sky.
Light and Life immortal!
Hear us as we raise
Hearts, as well as voices,
Mingling prayer and praise.

5 Morning, noon, and evening,
Whensoe'er it be,
Grant us, gracious Spirit,
Quickening life in Thee:
Life that gives us, living,
Life of heavenly love,
Life, that brings us, dying,
Life from heaven above.
Light and Life immortal!
Hear us as we raise
Hearts, as well as voices,
Mingling prayer and praise.

Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,

Glow the western sun,
Shedding all its gladness
O'er our work that's done;
Time will soon be over,
Toil and sorrow past,
May we, blessed Saviour,
Find a rest at last!

Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold.
Thither, onward thither,
In the Spirit's might!
Pilgrims to your country,

Loudest anthems raise;

I Lead on, O King E - ter - nal, The day of march has come;

Hence-forth in fields of con - quest Thy tents shall be our home:

Through days of pre - pa - ra - tion Thy grace has made us strong.

And now, O King E - ter - nal, We lift our bat - tle song. A-men.

2 Lead on, O King Eternal,
 Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
 And Holiness shall whisper
 The sweet Amen of peace;
 For not with swords loud clashing
 Nor roll of stirring drums,
 But deeds of love and mercy,
 The heavenly kingdom comes.

3 Lead on, O King Eternal:
 We follow, not with fears;
 For gladness breaks like morning
 Where'er Thy face appears;
 Thy cross is lifted o'er us;
 We journey in its light:
 The crown awaits the conquest;
 Lead on, O God of might. Amen.

HORATIO PARKER, 1894.

2 Go forward, Christian soldier!
 Fear not the secret foe;
 Far more o'er thee are watching
 Than human eyes can know:
 Trust only Christ, thy Captain;
 Cease not to watch and pray;
 Heed not the treacherous voices
 That lure thy soul astray.

3 Go forward, Christian soldier!
 Nor dream of peaceful rest,
 Till Satan's host is vanquished
 And heaven is all possessed!

Till Christ Himself shall call thee
 To lay thine armour by,
 And wear in endless glory
 The crown of victory.

4 Go forward, Christian soldier!
 Fear not the gathering night:
 The Lord has been thy shelter;
 The Lord will be thy light.
 When morn His face revealeth,
 Thy dangers all are past:
 O pray that faith and virtue
 May keep thee to the last!

KNECHT.

7.6.7.6.

JUSTIN H. KNECHT, 1799.

2 O happy if ye labour
As Jesus did for men!
O happy if ye hunger
As Jesus hungered then!

3 The cross that Jesus carried,
He carried as your due:
The crown that Jesus weareth,
He weareth it for you,

4 The faith by which ye see Him,
The hope in which ye yearn,
The love that through all troubles
To Him alone will turn;

5 The trials that beset you,
The sorrows ye endure,
The manifold temptations
That death alone can cure;

6 What are they but His jewels,
Of right celestial worth?
What are they but the ladder
Set up to heaven on earth?

7 O happy band of pilgrims,
Look upward to the skies,
Where such a light affliction
Shall win so great a prize!

8 To Father, Son, and Spirit,
The God Whom we adore,
Be loftiest praises given,
Now and for evermore. Amen.

ARTHUR H. MESSITER, 1883.

Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:
Raise high your free, exulting song!
God's wondrous praises speak!

With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints of earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth!

Your clear hosannas raise,
And alleluias loud!
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

Yes, on through life's long path!
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

Still lift your standard high!
Still march in firm array!
As warriors through the darkness toil,
Till dawns the golden day!

At last the march shall end;
The wearied ones shall rest;
The pilgrims find their Father's house,
Jerusalem the blest.

8
Then on, ye pure in heart!
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King!

GEORGE J. WEBB., 1837.

2 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey!
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this His glorious day!
Ye that are men now serve Him
Against unnumbered foes!
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
Stand in His strength alone!
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the Gospel armour,
And watching unto prayer,
When duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there!

4 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
The strife will not be long:
This day, the noise of battle;
The next, the victor's song.
To Him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

1 Through the night of doubt and sor-row On-ward goes the pil-grim band,

Sing-ing songs of ex-pec-ta-tion, Marching to the prom-ised land.

Clear be-fore us through the darkness Gleams and burns the guiding light:

Broth-er clasps the hand of broth-er, Stepping fearless thro' the night. A-men.

2 One, the light of God's own presence,
O'er His ransomed people shed,
Chasing far the gloom and terror,
Brightening all the path we tread:
One, the object of our journey,
One, the faith which never tires,
One, the earnest looking forward,
One, the hope our God inspires.

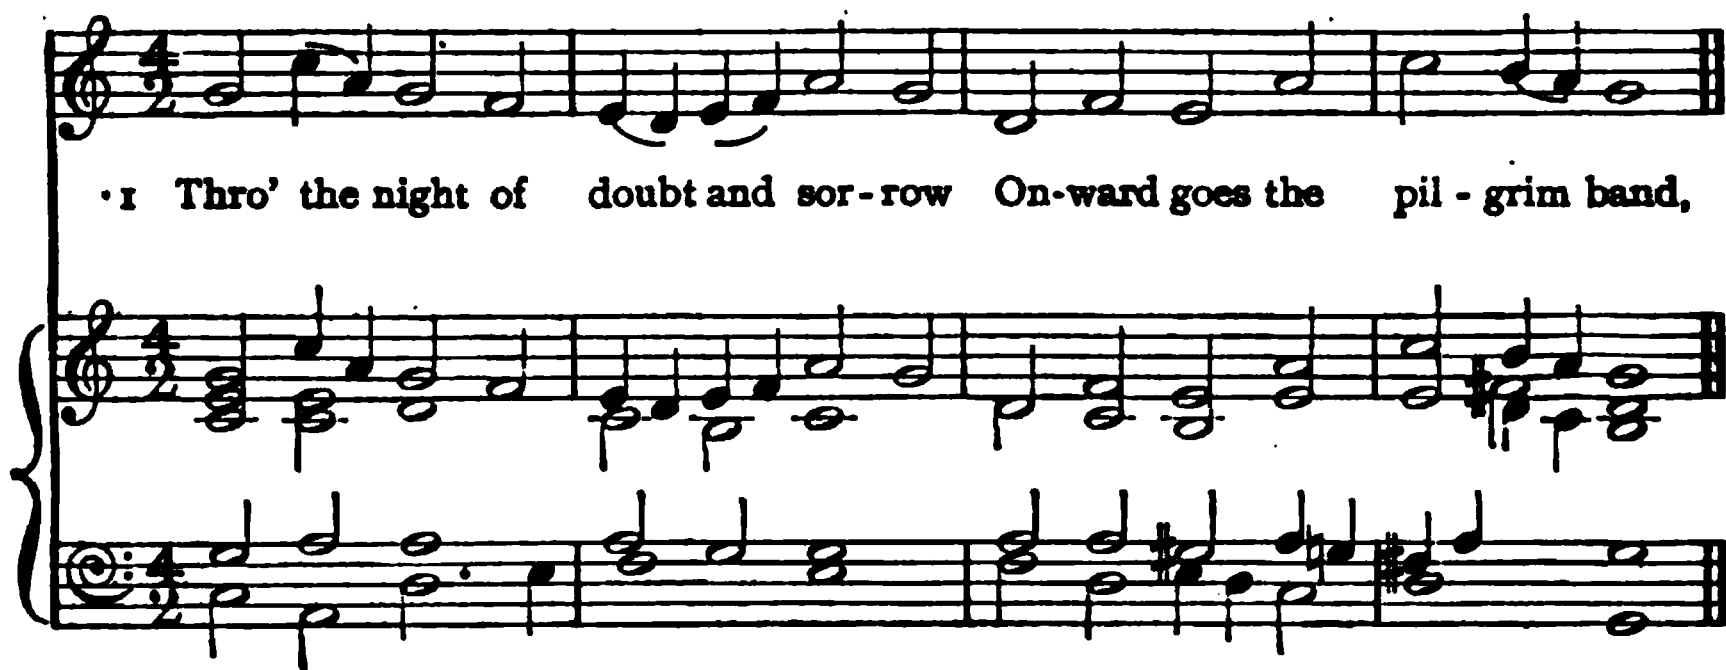

3 One, the strain the lips of thousands
Lift as from the heart of one;
One the conflict, one the peril,
One, the march in God begun:

One, the gladness of rejoicing
On the far eternal shore,
Where the One Almighty Father
Reigns in love for evermore.

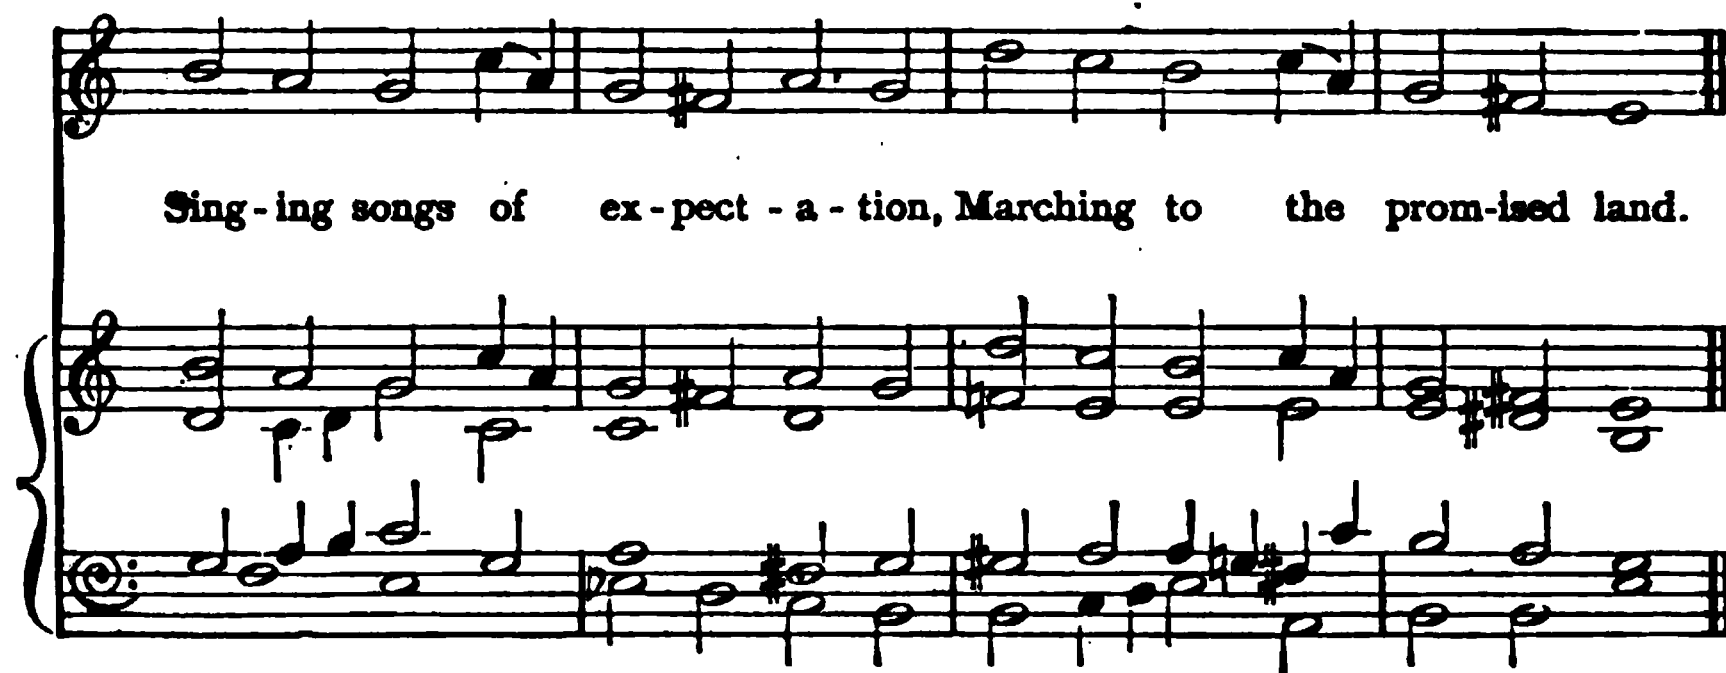

4 Onward therefore, pilgrim brothers,
Onward, with the cross our aid!
Bear its shame, and fight its battle,
Till we rest beneath its shade!
Soon shall come the great awaking;
Soon the rending of the tomb;
Then the scattering of all shadows,
And the end of toil and gloom!

At the Spirit's voice,
Daring here to number
Things unseen his choice:

Down at Jesus' cross;

All on earthly ground;
He who, like the martyrs,
Says, "I will be crowned";
He whose one oblation
Is a life of love,
Knit in God's salvation
To the blest above.

Of the heavenly King.
Citizens of regions
Past imagining!
What! with pipe and tabour
Dream away the light,
When He bids you labour,
When He tells you, "Fight"?

Crowns before Thy feet,

'Tis fin-ished ! all is fin-ished, Their fight with death and sin : . . .

Fling o - pen wide the gold - en gates, And let the vic - tors in. A-men.

2 What rush of alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky !
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh !
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made !
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid !

3 O then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore !
What knitting severed friendships up,
Where partings are no more !

Then eyes with joy shall sparkle
That brimmed with tears of late ;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

4 Bring near Thy great salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain ;
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign !
Appear, Desire of nations !
Thine exiles long for home : [sign !
Show in the heavens Thy promised
Thou Prince and Saviour, come !

Amen.

7.6.8.6. D.

HENRY J. STORER, 1891.

From every clime and kindred,
 And nations from afar,
 As serried ranks returning home
 In triumph from a war,
 I heard the saints upraising,
 The myriad hosts among,
 In praise of Him who died and lives,
 Their one glad triumph song.

Processionals.

I saw the holy city,
The New Jerusalem,
Come down from heaven, a bride adorned
With jeweled diadem;
The flood of crystal waters
Flowed down the golden street;
And nations brought their honours there,
And laid them at her feet.

And there no sun was needed,
Nor moon to shine by night,
God's glory did enlighten all,
The Lamb Himself the light;
And there His servants serve Him,
And, life's long battle o'er,
Enthroned with Him, their Saviour, King,
They reign for evermore.

O great and glorious vision!
The Lamb upon His throne;
O wondrous sight for man to see!
The Saviour with His own:
To drink the living waters
And stand upon the shore,
Where neither sorrow, sin, nor death
Shall ever enter more.

O Lamb of God Who reignest!
Thou bright and morning Star,
Whose glory lightens that new earth
Which now we see from far!
O worthy Judge eternal!
When Thou dost bid us come,
Then open wide the gates of pearl
And call Thy servants home. Amen.

2 O gladsome day and yet more gladsome hour!
 When shall that hour have come,
 When my rejoicing soul its own free power
 May use in going home?
 Itself to Jesus giving
 In trust to His own hand,
 To dwell among the living
 In that blest Fatherland.

3 Great fastness thou of honour! thee I greet:
 Throw wide thy gracious gate,
 An entrance free to give these longing feet,
 At last released, though late,
 From wretchedness and sinning,
 And life's long, weary way;
 And now, of God's gift, winning
 Eternity's bright day.

Processionals.

- 4 Unnumbered choirs before the Lamb's high throne
There shout the jubilee,
With loud resounding peal and sweetest tone,
In blissful ecstasy:
A hundred thousand voices
Take up the wondrous song;
Eternity rejoices
God's praises to prolong. Amen.

Har. by JOHN B. DYKES, 1868.

What are the Monarch, His court, and His throne?
 What are the peace and the joy that they own?
 O that the blest ones who in it have share,
 All that they feel could as fully declare!

Truly Jerusalem name we that shore,
 Vision of peace that brings joy evermore;
 Wish and fulfillment can severed be ne'er,
 Nor the thing prayed for come short of the prayer.

There, where no troubles distraction can bring,
 We the sweet anthems of Sion shall sing;
 While for Thy grace, Lord, their voices of praise
 Thy blessed people eternally raise.

Processionals.

There dawns no Sabbath, no Sabbath is o'er,
Those Sabbath-keepers have one evermore;
One and unending is that triumph song
Which to the angels and us shall belong.

Now, in the meanwhile, with hearts raised on high,
We for that country must yearn and must sigh;
Seeking Jerusalem, dear native land,
Through our long exile on Babylon's strand.

Low before Him with our praises we fall,
Of Whom, and in Whom, and through Whom are all;
Of Whom, the Father; and in Whom, the Son;
Through Whom, the Spirit, with Them ever One. Amen.

Before the manger shrine,
When, folded in Thy mother's arms,

Shine on us, holy Child;
That we may keep Thy birthday bright,
With service undefiled.

THE WISE MEN.

8.7.8.7. D.

BERTHOLD TOURS, 1881.

Heard you never of the story
How they crossed the desert wild,
Journeyed on by plain and mountain,
Till they found the holy Child?
How they opened all their treasure,
Kneeling to that infant King;
Gave the gold and fragrant incense,
Gave the myrrh in offering?

Know ye not that lowly baby
Was the bright and morning Star?
He Who came to light the Gentiles,
And the darkened isles afar?
And we, too, may seek His cradle;
There our hearts' best treasures bring;
Love, and faith, and true devotion
For our Saviour, God, and King.

THE MORNING AND EVENING

Canticles

AND

Occasional Anthems

NEWLY POINTED FOR BOTH ANGLICAN AND PLAINSONG CHANTING.

The following Pointing of the Canticles and Occasional Anthems has been prepared in response to an urgent and extensive demand for practical improvement in our methods of chanting; and for an adequate provision of Plainsong as well as of Anglican Chants. During the past twenty-five years, the principles of chanting, both Anglican and Gregorian, have become more clearly understood, and have been exemplified in many standard publications. It is now seen that the two methods are not mutually antagonistic, but rest alike upon the following

COMMON PRINCIPLES OF CHANTING.

A Chant consists of one or more Recitations upon a fixed note, and of one or more melodic Inflections.

The Recitation may be of any length; it may be preceded by introductory melodic notes, known as the Intonation.

The Inflections must be capable of adjustment to the varying accents of a prose sentence. The difference between Anglican and Plainsong chanting consists in the method of this adjustment.

As ordinary Psalm verses consist of two parts, ordinary Chants likewise contain two Recitations and two Inflections. The latter are sometimes called the Mediation and the Ending.

The words should be sung at the same pace in the Recitations and Inflections, thereby smoothly and naturally joining both Mediation and Ending with the previous Recitations. Weak syllables should not be hurried, nor strong ones retarded; every syllable should be clearly enunciated.

All accents, without exception, should be merely those of good reading. The tune derives its accents from the words; not the words from the tune. The words are more important than the music which adorns them.

Rules for Anglican Chanting.

1. The Recitation extends from the beginning of each half-verse to the upright stroke |. Each word and syllable should be distinctly enunciated, without hurry or stiffness, and with only the natural accent of good reading.

2. When the Recitation consists of a single syllable only, it should be sung to a half-note, not to a whole note. (17 examples in Te Deum).

3. The syllables after the upright stroke | in each half-verse are sung to the Inflection. There is no break or pause between Recitation and Inflection, and the rate of speed is the same in both.

4. A syllable in heavy-faced type should be sung to two notes of the Inflection.

5. A hyphen indicates that an additional note of the Inflection should be sung to the preceding syllable.

6. Two syllables followed by a dot should be sung to a single note of the Inflection, divided; but they should be somewhat retarded, so that that whole measure of the chant will form a triplet.

7. The final syllable of each half-verse ordinarily falls on the last note of each Inflection. If unaccented, it should be sung lightly and diminuendo, as marked above. In a few cases, two syllables fall upon this note. They should be sung quietly and evenly; not shortening the first, nor accenting it heavily.

Example of Rules 1

An example of bad chanting.

That we being delivered out of the hand | of our enemies: might | serve him without fear;

Rules for Plainsong Chanting.

1. The Intonation, together with the rest of the first half-verse, should be sung by a single voice; the Choir and Congregation beginning at the second half of the verse. The notes of the Intonation are not slower than those of the Recitation. The Intonation should not be sung with any other verse of the Canticle, or at the Gloria; except in the case of the three Gospel Canticles, Benedictus, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis; in which it should be sung with every verse: as on pages 740, 741, 749, 756, 757.

2. The Recitation should be sung precisely as in Anglican chanting.

3. The notes of the Intonation, Recitation, Mediation, and Ending, should move at the same pace, and irrespective of whether a single note or a group is sung to a syllable: except the final notes of both Mediation and Ending, which are to be lengthened as approximately indicated in the music; and when concluding with a weak syllable, should be sung diminuendo: as on pages 746, 747, 748, 756.

4. The syllable following the upright stroke | is sung to the first note which changes in pitch from the reciting note.

5. Groups of notes are never divided between syllables; nor are single notes ever combined to be sung to a single syllable. Examples on pages 740, 746, 747, 748.

6. Adaptation of the words to the Mediation and Ending is obtained by the addition as needed of the notes in parentheses; and in some cases by the omission of the Recitation, or of notes in the Mediation. The notes in parentheses are only used when needed: as on pages 728, 740, 743.

7. In the Mediation of Tones II, IV, V, and VIII, the final note is omitted if the half-verse ends with an accent: as on pages 728, 736, 737, 743, 749, 765. The Mediations of Tones III and VII are sometimes abbreviated by the omission of a note to obtain closer correspondence with the words: as on pages 740, 756, 767.

8. The central pause in each verse should be long enough to afford a plentiful and leisurely breath; and should be rhythmically related to the preceding cadence. Each half-verse should be sung with a single breath, except those printed in two lines; when an additional breath may be taken at the end of the first line. The sign † indicates an inflection of the voice used in many choirs at an unaccented syllable preceding such a breath; and is included for their convenience.

9. The two verses of Gloria Patri should be sung precisely as any other two verses; without either preliminary retard in the preceding verse or pause after it. Both verses may properly be sung by the full choir.

10. The melody only is sung by the voices. The verses may be sung antiphonally (1) between the two sides of the Choir, (2) between a single voice and the remaining singers, (3) between the Choir and Congregation, or (4) between sopranos and altos on the one hand, and tenors and basses on the other. The second method is preferable for a small congregation, the third or fourth for a larger church with a choir.

BEXFIELD.

LORD, let me know mine end, and the number | of my days:
that I may be certified how | long I have to live.

2 Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a | span long:
and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee,
and verily every man living is alto|gether vanity.

3 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth him|self in vain:
he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who shall gather them.

4 And now Lord, what | is my hope:
truly my | hope is • even • in thee.

5 Deliver me from all mine of|fences:
and make me not a rebuke | unto • the foolish.

6 When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away
like as it were a moth fretting a | garment:
every man therefore | is but vanity.

Burial of the Dead.

7 Hear my prayer O LORD, and with thine ears consider my | calling:
hold not thy | peace at my tears.

8 For I am a stranger with thee and a | sojourner:
as | all my fathers were.

9 O spare me a little, that I may re|cover • my strength:
before I go hence and be | no more seen.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son:
and | to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever • shall be:
world without | end. Amen.

LORD, thou hast | been our refuge:
from one generation | to another.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,
or ever the earth and the | world were made:
thou art God from everlasting, and | world without end.

3 Thou turnest man to de|struction:
again thou sayest, Come again, ye | children of men.

4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as | yesterday:
seeing that is past as a | watch in the night.

5 As soon as thou scatterest them they are even | as a sleep:
and fade away | sudden • ly like the grass.

6 In the morning it is green and | groweth up:
but in the evening it is cut down, dried | up and withered.

7 For we consume away in thy dis|pleasure:
and are afraid at thy wrathful | indignation.

8 Thou hast set our misdeeds be|fore thee:
and our secret sins in the light | of thy countenance.

9 For when thou art angry all our | days are gone:
we bring our years to an end, as it were a | tale that is told.

10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten;
and though men be so strong that they come to | fourscore years:
yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow;
so soon passeth it a|way and we are gone.

11 O teach us to | number • our days:
that we may apply our hearts | unto wisdom.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son:
and | to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now and | ever • shall be:
world without | end. Amen.

Hymns for Men's Voices.

RATISBON.

Six 7's.

WERNER'S Choralbuch, 1815.

1 Christ, Whose glo-ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly Light,

Sun of Righteous-ness, a - rise! Tri-umph o'er the shades of night:

Dayspring from on high, be near; Daystar, in my heart ap-pear. A-men.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn
Unaccompanied by Thee;
Joyless is the day's return,
Till Thy mercy's beams I see;
Till they inward light impart,
Glad my eyes and warm my heart.

3 Visit then this soul of mine!
Pierce the gloom of sin and grief!
Fill me, Radiance Divine;
Scatter all my unbelief;
More and more Thyself display,
Shining to the perfect day. Amen.

CHARLES WESLEY, 1740.

EVENTIDE.

Four 10's.

WILLIAM H. MONK, 1861.

1 A - bid with me: fast falls the e - ven - tide; The darkness deep - ens;

Lord, with me a - bid: When o - ther help - ers fail, and com - forts flee, Help of the help - less, O a - bid with me. A - men.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou Who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4 I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

5 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes:
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies:
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee:
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me. Amen.

HENRY F. LYTE, 1847.

HURSLEY.

Vienna, c. 1774.

1 Sun of my soul, Thou Sa - viour dear, It is not night if Thou be near; O may no earth - born cloud a - rise To hide Thee from Thy ser - vant's eyes. A - men.

- 2 When the soft dew's of kindly sleep
My weary eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought, how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast.
- 2 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without Thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without Thee I dare not die.
- 4 If some poor wandering child of Thine
Have spurned to-day the voice divine,
Now, Lord, the gracious work begin;
Let him no more lie down in sin.
- 5 Watch by the sick; enrich the poor
With blessings from Thy boundless store;
Be every mourner's sleep to-night,
Like infant's slumbers, pure and light.
- 6 Come near and bless us when we wake,
Ere through the world our way we take,
Till in the ocean of Thy love
We lose ourselves in heaven above. Amen.

ST. THOMAS.

J. F. WADE'S Cantus Diversi, 1751.

2 Every eye shall now behold Him,
 Robed in dreadful majesty;
 Those who set at naught and sold Him,
 Pierced, and nailed Him to the tree,
 Deeply wailing,
 Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Now redemption, long expected,
 See in solemn pomp appear:
 All His saints, by men rejected,
 Now shall meet Him in the air:
 Alleluia!
 See the day of God appear.

4 Yea, amen; let all adore Thee,
 High on Thine eternal throne;
 Saviour, take the power and glory;
 Claim the kingdoms for Thine own:
 Alleluia!
 Thou shalt reign, and Thou alone. Amen.

JOHN CENNICK, 1750, and CHARLES WESLEY, 1758.

ADESTE FIDELIS.

P.M. J. F. WADE'S Cantus Diversi, 1751.After each verse.

2 God of God,
Light of Light,
Lo! He abhors not the Virgin's womb; O come, let us adore Him, etc.
Very God,
Begotten, not created;
O come, let us adore Him, etc.

3 Sing, choirs of angels,
Sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above: O come, let us adore Him, etc.

Glory to God
In the highest;
4 Yea, Lord, we greet Thee,
Born this happy morning;
Jesus, to Thee be glory given;
Word of the Father,
Now in flesh appearing;

Amen.

HENRY S. CUTLER, 1872.

1 The Son of God goes forth to war, A king - ly crown to gain; . .

His blood - red ban - ner streams a - far: Who fol - lows in His train?

2 Who best can drink his cup of woe, Tri - um-phant o - ver pain; . .

Who pa-tient bears his cross below, He fol - lows in His train. A - men.

Hymns for Men's Voices.

The martyr first, whose eagle eye
Could pierce beyond the grave;
Who saw his Master in the sky,
And called on Him to save.

Like Him, with pardon on his tongue,
In midst of mortal pain,
He prayed for them that did the wrong:
Who follows in his train?

A glorious band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came:
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame.

They met the tyrant's brandished steel,
The lion's gory mane;
They bowed their necks the death to feel:
Who follows in their train?

A noble army: men and boys,
The matron and the maid:
Around the Saviour's throne rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed.

8

They climbed the steep ascent of heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train. Amen.

REGINALD HEBER, 1812.

DIX.

Alt. from a melody by CONRAD KOCHER, 1838.

1 As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold,

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright;

So, most gracious Lord, may we Ev - er-more be led to Thee. A-men.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed;
There to bend the knee before
Him Whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ! to Thee, our heavenly King.

5 In the heavenly country bright,
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down,
There for ever may we sing
Alleluias to our King. Amen.

WILLIAM BOYD, 1864.

1 Fight the good fight with all thy might, Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right; Lay hold on life, and it shall be Thy joy and crown e - ter - nal - ly. A - men.

2 Run the straight race through God's good grace,
Lift up thine eyes, and seek His face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

3 Cast care aside, lean on thy Guide;
His boundless mercy will provide;
Trust, and thy trusting soul shall prove
Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

4 Faint not nor fear, His arms are near;
He changeth not, and thou art dear;
Only believe, and thou shalt see
That Christ is all in all to thee.

2 Who so beset him round
 With dismal stories,
 Do but themselves confound,
 His strength the more is.
 No foes shall stay his might,
 Though he with giants fight;
 He will make good his right
 To be a pilgrim.

3 Since, Lord, Thou dost defend Us with Thy Spirit,
 We know we at the end
 Shall life inherit.
 Then fancies flee away!
 I'll fear not what men say,
 I'll labour night and day
 To be a pilgrim.

MARTIN HERBST (?), 1676.

1 For - ty days and for - ty nights Thou wast fast - ing in the wild;

For - ty days and for - ty nights Tempted, and yet un - de - filed. A-men.

2 Shall not we Thy sorrow share,
And from earthly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer,
Glad with Thee to suffer pain?

3 And if Satan, vexing sore,
Flesh or spirit should assail,
Thou, his Vanquisher before,
Grant we may not faint or fail.

4 So shall we have peace divine:
Holier gladness ours shall be;
Round us, too, shall angels shine,
Such as ministered to Thee.

5 Keep, O keep us, Saviour dear,
Ever constant by Thy side;
That with Thee we may appear
At the eternal Eastertide. Amen.

GEORGE J. ELVEY, 1868.

1 Crown Him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;

Hark! how the heavenly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own:

A - wake, my soul, and sing Of Him Who died for thee,

And hail Him as thy matchless King Thro' all e - ter - ni - ty. A-men.

Hymns for Men's Voices.

2 Crown Him the Son of God

Before the worlds began,
And ye, who tread where He hath trod,
Crown Him the Son of Man;
Who every grief hath known
That wrings the human breast,
And takes and bears them for His own,
That all in Him may rest.

3 Crown Him the Lord of Life,

Who triumphed o'er the grave,
And rose victorious in the strife
For those He came to save;
His glories now we sing
Who died, and rose on high,
Who died, eternal life to bring,
And lives that death may die.

4 Crown Him of lords the Lord,

Who over all doth reign,
Who once on earth, the Incarnate Word,
For ransomed sinners slain,
Now lives in realms of light,
Where saints with angels sing
Their songs before Him day and night,
Their God, Redeemer, King.

5 Crown Him the Lord of heaven,

Enthroned in worlds above;
Crown Him the King, to Whom is given
The wondrous name of Love.
Crown Him with many crowns,
As thrones before Him fall,
Crown Him, ye kings, with many crowns,
For He is King of all. Amen.

RICHARD REDHEAD, 1853.

1 Rock of a - ges, cleft for me, Let me hide my-self in Thee;

Let the wa - ter and the blood, From Thy side, a heal - ing flood,

Be of sin the double cure, Save from wrath, and make me pure. A-men.

2 Should my tears for ever flow,
Should my zeal no languor know,
All for sin could not atone,
Thou must save, and Thou alone;
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyelids close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold Thee on Thy throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee. Amen.

6.4.6.4.6.6.6.4.

LOWELL MASON, 1856.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that Thou sendest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

4 Then with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee.
Nearer to Thee.

5 Or if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upwards I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee. Amen.

1 Je - sus, Lo - ver of my soul, Let me to Thy bo - som fly,

While the near - er wa - ters roll, While the tem-pest still is high:

Hide me, O my Sa - viour, hide. Till the storm of life be past;

Safe in - to the ha - ven guide, O receive my soul at last. A - men.

2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me:
All my trust on Thee is stayed;
All my help from Thee I bring;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of Thy wing.

3 Plenteous grace with Thee is found,
Grace to cleanse from every sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within:
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of Thee:
Spring Thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity. Amen.

1 Lead, kindly Light, amid th' en-circling gloom, . . Lead Thou me on!

The night is dark, and I am far from home, . . . Lead Thou me on! . .

Keep Thou my feet! I do not ask to see . . .

The dis - tant scene; one step e - nough for me. A - men.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!
I loved the garish day; and spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years.

3 So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile. Amen.

Hymns for Men's Voices.

2 Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain, in the well-fought fight;
Thou, in the darkness drear, the one true Light.

Alleluia.

3 O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia.

4 O blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

Alleluia.

5 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong.

Alleluia.

6 The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia.

7 But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on His way.

Alleluia.

8 From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

Alleluia! Amen.

1 The King of love my Shep-herd is, Whose goodness faileth nev - er;

I noth-ing lack if I am His, And He is mine for ev - er. A-men.

2 Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul He leadeth,
And, where the verdant pastures grow,
With food celestial feedeth.

3 Perverse and foolish oft I strayed,
But yet in love He sought me,
And on His shoulder gently laid,
And home, rejoicing, brought me.

4 In death's dark vale I fear no ill
With Thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still,
Thy cross before to guide me.

5 Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
Thy unction grace bestoweth;
And O what transport of delight
From Thy pure chalice floweth!

6 And so through all the length of days
Thy goodness faileth never:
Good Shepherd, may I sing Thy praise
Within Thy house for ever. Amen.

1 O God, our help in a - ges past, Our hope for years to come,

Our shel - ter from the storm-y blast, And our e - ter - nal home: A-men.

2 Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

3 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

4 A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

5 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

6 O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our Guide while life shall last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

SAMUEL S. WESLEY, 1864.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation,
One Lord, one Faith, one Birth;
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore opprest,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won.
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with Thee.

Amen.

7.6.7.6.D.

GEORGE J. WEBB, 1837.

2 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey!
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this His glorious day!
Ye that are men now serve Him
Against unnumbered foes!
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
Stand in His strength alone!
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the Gospel armour,
And watching unto prayer,
When duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there!

4 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus!
The strife will not be long:
This day, the noise of battle;
The next, the victor's song.
To Him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.
